

KKK STORE'S Removal Sale Specials For THIS WEEK

All Suits at one-fifth off, excepting Blue Serge Suits.
All Boys' Suits at one-fifth off.

All Straw Hats 1-2 Off ——— All Panama Hats 1-2 Off

DRESS AND BUSINESS STYLE SHOES EXTRA SPECIAL AT	$8.85	LADIES' TIDY-ALL SUITS, EXTRA SPECIAL AT, PER SUIT	$2.50
WORK SHOES, EXTRA SPECIAL AT	$4.85	LADIES' LEE UNION-ALLS, EXTRA SPECIAL AT, PER SUIT	$1.75

TRUNKS AND SUIT CASES ONE-FIFTH OFF THIS WEEK—BELBER AND OTHER GOOD MAKES. TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THESE REMOVAL SALES AND SAVE A LOT OF DOLLARS

KKK STORE — Leading Clothiers and Hatters

PERSONAL MENTION

A. E. Dietz, proprietor of the nursery at Corning, California, has been here on a vacation trip and went to Dorris this morning to attend to business. He expects to return tonight.

Mrs. N. C. Burgess and son, Raymond, who have been here on an outing trip for two months, took the morning train to their home in Sacramento.

C. G. Ferris, a well-known rancher of Bonanza, was a passenger on the morning train to Central Point, Oregon, where he will spend three days on business.

Mrs. Jose Burton, of Lawton, Oklahoma, who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. G. Ferris, of Bonanza, for two weeks, left for her home this morning. Mrs. Burton intended to make a long visit but was called home by serious illness in her family.

Mrs. G. W. Tape, of Paso Robles, California, whose husband is the manager of the Paso Robles Hot Springs hotel at that place, is in this city on a pleasure trip. She is accompanied by her sister, Miss E. Laugenhager.

B. Switzer is here from Portland on a brief business trip.

W. E. Winston was in this city yesterday looking after property interests and this morning he accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ray Telford to Crystal creek where they will spend a few days.

Mrs. Mabel Terstegen, who has been visiting Crater Lake, was a passenger on the morning train for her home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. J. J. Keller, who has been visiting at the home of her mother in Fremont, Ohio, returned home last night.

W. W. Davis, of Jersey Shore, Pennsylvania, who has been here on a short business trip, left on the morning train for Portland en route to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Ramsdell and family were passengers on the morning train for Elk City, Lincoln county, Oregon, where Mr. Ramsdell owns a ranch and where they will make their home. Mr. Ramsdell was superintendent of the Klamath fish hatchery at Fort Klamath prior to his resignation recently.

Mrs. A. J. Kellogg went to Dorris this morning to attend to business in regard to the fire there yesterday. Mrs. Kellogg owned the Bradburn hotel there.

Mrs. W. S. Jenkins and Mrs. L. A. Streuber of Chiloquin, Oregon, were passengers on the morning train, the former to Grenada, California, and the latter to Dunsmuir, where they will visit friends for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Riley, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Algona for two months, left on the morning train for their home in Kissimmee, Florida.

M. E. House arrived by auto yesterday from Mountain Home, Idaho, and surprised his brother, Charles House, whom he had not seen in 14 years. He will remain in this city a few days and then go to California points—returning—again—in a few weeks.

After a very pleasant visit here, the Misses Margaret and Elsie Setzer will return to their home in St. Paul, Minnesota, Saturday. Their cousins, Clara Setzer, and Robert Downe, will accompany them as far as Portland, where they will spend a few days visiting relatives.

Robert E. Howard, of Portland, who has been here visiting his brother, Fred Howard, for the past two weeks, will return to his home this week. His brother will accompany him to Portland.

Mrs. Van M. Moore, who has been spending the winter in Chicago, was a guest Tuesday night at the White Pelican hotel. She will join her husband who has recently located at Fort Klamath.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Gammon came down yesterday from Upper Klamath lake for a few days. Mr. Gammon is in charge of a surveying crew for the California-Oregon Power company.

J. A. Daley, Jr., is visiting his cousin, Coleman O'Loughlin, for a week or so. The young man's home is in Los Angeles, California, and he is looking forward to a fine time exploring Klamath county.

A. S. Veatch, of the First National bank, is ill at the Klamath General hospital with a severe case of tonsillitis.

Lyle Walters is in town this week from the survey camp near the Klamath Agency.

THREE MEN IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Warren G. Harding of Ohio, Republican nominee for president; Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, Republican nominee for vice president, and Will H. Hays of Indiana, chairman of the Republican National Committee, conferring in Washington, D. C., on plans for the coming national campaign.

ALLEGED HOLDUP IS MYSTERY TO POLICE

A holdup in which the victim asserts he lost a gold watch and $28 cash is said to have taken place last night about 11 o'clock on Main street in front of the Central school. Inquiry of Police Chief Wilson this afternoon received the reply that no report of the robbery had reached him.

At the Central hotel it was said that the victim, whose name was not learned, rushed in and asked to use the phone in the ice cream parlor to notify the police, but there was no record at the station today to show that he was successful in getting a patrolman or that any investigation was being made of the case.

THE USE OF these columns will make money for you.

KNOWLES TO START COLLEGE OF NATURE

ASTORIA, July 22—Joe Knowles, America's best known Nature Man, who has conducted experiments in the wilds throughout the United States will return to the woods this summer but not alone.

The man who has so conclusively demonstrated to scientists that he could live as the people of the Stone Age did, will go into the woods this summer with 50 to 100 boys to teach them "The language of the Woods."

Knowles' "University of the Woods" will be opened about August 10 when the party will leave Astoria. The Nature Man has selected a spot ideal for camp life, with the mountains, the streams, and the nearby ocean forming an outdoor campus which will undoubtedly attract boys from every section of the Pacific Coast.

When You Buy Sundries

Look Under the Surface

THE HIDDEN QUALITY OF GOODS COMING UNDER THE HEAD OF DRUG SUNDRIES AND COMPRISING SUCH ARTICLES AS

Hair Brushes, Tooth Brushes, Combs
Manicure Implements, etc.

IS JUST AS IMPORTANT AS THE SURFACE INDICATIONS. SUNDRIES WHICH WE SELL HAVE QUALITY CLEAR THROUGH. SOLID SUBSTANTIAL QUALITIES ARE CHARACTERISTICS OF THIS STORE.

OUR LARGE TRADE HAS NOT COME TO US BY CHANCE. QUALITY GOODS AT RIGHT PRICES HAS BEEN THE MAGNET.

IF IT'S WORTHY WE HAVE IT

Underwood's Pharmacy

KLAMATH FALLS OREGON
WHERE PARTICULAR PEOPLE BUY THEIR DRUGS

An ordinary egg-shell, on which is delicately painted a miniature copy of a well-known Watteau painting, was sold recently in Paris for $5000.

In many cities in Europe the owners of houses bearing No. 13 are allowed to change the figure upon a simple application to the proper authorities.

Ancient Greeks and Romans frequently mixed their sea water, the latter being supposed to promote digestion and to keep the wine from "mounting upwards."

The sheriffs annually pay into the British treasury six horseshoes with the proper number of nails, as rent for a piece of ground in the parish of St. Clement's.

In olden times in England a royal dish was prepared from thin slices of young deer horns, these having been previously fried.

Great Britain spends $240,000,000 a year on sport, the largest item being horse-racing, which accounts for a quarter of the full amount.

A new device for apartment houses is a miniature system of pneumatic tubes which carry the mail from the street entrance to each apartment.

Although the lily yields a delicate perfume, in toilet goods the odor is always "imitated."

LIBERTY THEATRE

THE PICK OF THE PICTURES AND A NEW ONE EVERY DAY
E. W. POOLE, Owner HARRY BOBBL, Musical Director

TONIGHT

Robert Louis Stevenson's great mystery
"DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE"
You know the story—the picture is wonderful

FRIDAY

That daring horseman, Harry Carey, is the star in
"THE ACE OF THE SADDLE"

SATURDAY

Dainty Mary Miles Minter comes to us in
"A CUMBERLAND ROMANCE"

MATINEE EVERY DAY