American Baroness Who Will Seek to Have U. S. Citizenship Restored

Baroness Speck von Sternburg

Declaring that she never wishes to leave America again and that she will seek to have her citizenship restored, Baroness Speck von Sternburg has returned to the United States. The late Baron von Sternburg was for years German ambassador at Washington. The baroness before her marriage was Miss Lillian May Lanham of Louisville, Ky. She states that she is in straitened financial circumstances because her American property was seized at the beginning of the war by the alien property custodian and is still held by the government.

OAKLAND HOLDS MOVIE HOLIDAY

OAKLAND, Cal., July 26.—Oakland is in holiday attire today for the gathering here of famous film stars and thousands of other visitors in honor of the First National Exhibitors' field day at the Oakland baseball park. Mayor John L. Davies has proclaimed today a civic holiday, probably the first time in history when a city has officially taken a holiday in honor of the creators of the motion picture drama. The most famous stars of the Hollywood film colony, two score or more, are in attendance.

California railroads, chamber of commerce, Ad club, Merchants' exchange, Better Business bureau, Business Development league and Mutual Business club have all joined hands in making the First National field day the biggest holiday celebration ever held on the Pacific slope. Special excursion trains will bring visitors to Oakland from all over the state, and word from Los Angeles indicates that Hollywood will be deserted for the day.

President Cal Ewing of the Oakland Baseball club has turned over his plant to the field-day management and will stage a ball game between the visiting stars and the Oaks. Note.—The First National Exhibitors' circuit is an association, composed of theater owners only, who produce their own pictures with their own stars for houses controlled by their members. The insignia of the First National exhibitors' is regarded as assurance of merit by all patrons of the movies. Terwilliger & Patrick of this city are members of the circuit.

BRAZIL EXPECTS 23 MILLION IN CENSUS

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 29. (By Mail.)—Thousands of workers are now engaged in taking what is said will be the most complete census Brazil has ever had. Official statistics at the present time give the population of Brazil as approximately 23,000,000 by Dr. Carvalho, the director-general of statistics, told the Associated Press that these figures are much too low. Rio de Janeiro although credited with 900,000 population really has more than 1,000,000, he says.

Can Run Autos With Residue of Wood Pulp, Says Canadian Official

Baroness Speck von Sternburg

That Canadians soon will be running their automobiles on denatured alcohol instead of gasoline is the prediction of Professor A. B. Macalium, administrative chairman of the honorary advisory council for scientific and industrial research. He says that Canada's pulp mills, by utilizing the sulphite liquor, could supply 5,000,000 gallons annually.

AT THE THEATERS

Tomorrow Mildred Harris Chaplin will be seen in her latest First National Production, "The Inferior Sex," and this is a picture every man, woman and child should see and judge from its production which is the Superior Sex. At the Star Theatre tomorrow. "The Grocery Clerk," featuring the famous Larry Semons and said to be one of the best ever made will be shown as a special attraction.

Real football was played for the production of "Dangerous to Men," to be shown at the Liberty Theatre tonight, with Viola Dana in the star role.

The beach cities of Venice and Santa Monica were placarded with announcements of the game, and local papers carried stories predicting that the known rivalry between "Samohi" and Venice would make the game itself more than a tame exhibition for the camera.

The players did not stop outside the camera lines, as regular actors do, but kept right on until each play was finished, to the great joy of the 500 spectators in the grandstand. Sections of rosters, well equipped with noise-makers, a goat mascot, a uniformed band, and a corps of cheer leaders for the rival schools added genuine gridiron atmosphere to the affair. On one occasion the game was so exciting that one of the cameramen forgot to stop cranking when the signal was given.

In "Dangerous to Men," the little country girl, Eliza, is sent to a fashionable "prep" school after the death of her father. This game is the first athletic event she has ever seen. Viola Dana enjoyed the contest on location as though it actually were her first game.

"What Might Have Been" with a vengeance describes that story of "Atonement," the photoplay starring

Grace Davison and Conway Tearle at the Liberty Theatre Tuesday.

The plot of this rather unique story is both unusual and complex. It tells of the tribulation of a man, who to save his brother from financial ruin and disgrace misappropriated funds of the bank of which he was cashier. When it is too late he realizes that by his actions he has wronged his wife and child beyond reparation by bringing them to penury and disgrace.

Seeing that he has unwittingly become entangled in the law, the husband drops from sight, his clothes being found at the river front, and it is presumed that he is dead, and after a short time she marries again. Years of happiness follow for her, while a husband, dead to the law, lives like a lost spirit in the shadow of the underworld. At last he is arrested, his identity discovered, and his wife is now hailed to the bar of justice as a bigamist.

A powerful climax is reached and the husband awakens—for it has been a dream of warning.

INTERVENTION IDEA WANING SAYS MEXICAN

MEXICO CITY, July 8. (By Mail.)—Senator Guillermo Laveaga declares in a statement he has just published that he believes the idea of American intervention in Mexico "very soon will be discredited and that this sole factor in creating hate and distrust between the two peoples will disappear forever."

Senator Laveaga endeavors to interpret to Mexicans the ideals of Americans, as one who formerly lived in the United States. In part he says:

"I do not admit that American interventionists represent the national conscience of the American people. They represent only one class, the insidious capitalists. The honest and conscientious men who form the government never admit them to their deliberations.

"Neither do I admit that the American interventionists can deceive with their calumnies and false theories the laborious citizens of that republic. The American public is very credulous, but it has been deceived so often, it has suffered so much from the magnates of the dollar that it knows their methods, distrusts them and fears and repudiates them. I have absolute faith in the moral personality of the American people.

"I assert that Mexico, in the last 10 years of civil war, has made more progress in cultivating civic spirit and has cemented its progress on more solid bases than in all its previous years of existence as a nation. Naturally we must wait long for the world to convince itself of this but truth and justice, even tardily, always triumph and will confound our gratuitous detractors with the malediction of history.

"We Mexicans are forming our codes, working out our destiny as a free nation. We are, naturally, making many errors. But do these justify other nations, simply because they are strong, in trampling upon our dignity as an independent people, in killing us? If this happens, we can cry: "Might Is Right" and "Deutschland Uber Alles."

Roosevelt's Glasses

Ex-President Roosevelt was awkward and stupid as a boy until he suddenly discovered that he could not see as well as other boys.

He tells us that glasses changed his career.

Most backward children have defective eyesight. No boy or girl can do well in school who cannot see distinctly. With correctly fitted glasses nine out of every ten improve immediately in school work.

Success in school promises success in later life. Have your child's eyes examined at the first indication of trouble.

MANY NEW THEATERS BUILDING IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, July 26.—Millions are being spent for new playhouses to insure New Yorkers ample amusement this winter, although flat builders cannot get loans for housing the masses of the metropolitan district.

This was revealed today when a survey was made of the rush of theater constructions, which disclosed that $25,000,000 worth of new amusement houses were under way. Many of the new playhouses are wiping out old flats and dwellings urgently needed for homes, social welfare investigators declare, and as a result the housing shortage is becoming more acute.

The theater builders assert that the immense sums pouring into places of amusement are justified as the new construction guarantees them a profitable return on the investment.

Although there are 500 running theaters in the greater city and 650 in the entire metropolitan district, eight new theaters costing more than $12,000,000 are planned in Long

Acre-Times Square district, three in Greenwich village, four large houses and a score of smaller theaters in the Bronx, three in Washington heights and five in Brooklyn.

There are now 115 theaters operating in Brooklyn.

GLIDERS NAVIGATE SHALLOW WATERS

BUENOS AIRES, June 28. (By Mail.)—The use of gliders for transporting passengers and mail on some of the swift and shallow rivers of Argentina may result from a trial undertaken on the authority of the Minister of Public Works. On the trial trip just made on the Bermejo River it was shown that a passage which commonly occupies 10 to 15 days by the ordinary steamer could be made regularly with a glider in about 10 hours providing no stops were made. These gliders are a French invention making use of the flying principle for navigation on the surface of rivers. The plan is to import parts and manufacture the machines in this country.
