PERSONAL MENTION

L. A. Richardson, Frank Obenchain and Jeff Riddell were in town yesterday from their farms in the Bly section, attending to business matters and purchasing supplies.

G. G. Anderson was a county seat visitor from Dairy yesterday.

Frank M. Anderson, a well known geologist and mineral expert from Berkeley, California, is here with his wife for a short visit with friends and relatives, for the first time in twelve years. Mr. Anderson is a brother-in-law of Captain O. C. Applegate and a brother of G. G. Anderson of Dairy. The visitors left today for Crater lake where they will spend a few days before returning here.

Don Newbury is in town for a few days before starting out for a business trip over the county. He has been working in the Chiloquin district for the past few weeks.

Ray Talbot and D. E. Driscoll are in town today from their homes near Bly, on matters of business.

Ernest Nall, who has been absent for several months in Eugene, where he attended the University of Oregon, returned home Saturday evening for the summer.

Miss Audrey Roberts who has been at Spring Creek for a two weeks' vacation, returned home Sunday.

G. W. White, accompanied by his granddaughter, Dorothy Delzell, left by auto this morning for Pasadena, where they will join Mrs. White who has been spending the winter there.

Wesley Walton, who has been in Dorris, California for some time, was here yesterday on his way to Chiloquin where he has accepted a position.

N. E. McCory and Herbert Barry left this morning for the headwaters of Sprague river for a few days' fishing.

Mrs. G. B. Thompson and daughter, Ruth, are city visitors today from their ranch near Bonanza.

John J. Kelleher has moved his sheep from Malin to Silver Lake and is in the city today on business.

George Strowbridge, who operates a garage at Chiloquin, was in town last night.

Mrs. Ray Court underwent a major operation at the Klamath general hospital early this morning.

Captain O. C. Applegate has just received news of the death of his cousin, Eudora Lindsay South, teacher and poetess of Kentucky. Mrs. South was for many years principal of the Excelsior Collegiate Institute at Jefferson, Ky., and was widely known in her home state.

O. C. Welch, who came here Saturday night on business for the Pine Lumber company, returned to his home in Modesto, California, this morning.

Mrs. M. G. Post and Miss Maude Post, of Chicago, Ill., have been on a tour of the northwest and went, via Medford, by auto to Crater Lake. They left on the morning train for San Francisco and intend to go home in September.

Mrs. James Barrington, who has been visiting at the home of her niece, Mrs. S. R. Redkey, for the past week, left this morning for her home in Dubuque, Iowa.

Mrs. M. T. Bailey and Miss Olive Chubb, who have been to Alaska and other northwestern points, came down from Crater Lake yesterday and left this morning for their homes in Bakersfield and Lodi, Cal., respectively.

Fred Gooch, who has been here looking over the country, returned to his home in Mills City, Oregon, this morning. He expects to move his family here in about two weeks.

S. L. Berry, who has been here on a week's business trip, returned to his home in Sunnyside, California, on the morning train.

L. A. Schone, well known operator of the Standard Oil Service station at the corner of 6th and Klamath, has been transferred to a station in Sacramento and left this morning to take his new position.

Frank Batchelor, who has been doing carpenter work in this city for the past two months, left on the morning train for his home in Portland.

Miss Callie Owen left this morning for Marshfield where she will make her home.

Miss Ethel Isaacs has gone to Chico, California, where she will make an indefinite visit with relatives and friends.

R. Wenzel left on a week's business trip to Roseburg, Oregon, this morning.

Willie Lea and Frank Chub, race horse owners, and C. C. Myers, trainer, were passengers on the morning train for Tia Juana, Mexico. They are taking nine horses which they expect to enter in the renowned Tia Juana races.
