IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

You can depend upon your welding job if we do it. Our prices are lower than others, too. There's a reason. Howie Garage. 26-1f

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

LOOK YOUNG! BRING BACK ITS NATURAL COLOR, GLOSS AND ATTRACTIVENESS

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 5-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

AT THE THEATERS

Just what a woman would do who has never bent the knee to social laws and listens to no dictates but what are prompted by the impulses of her heart is shown in Romany. "Where Love Runs Wild," the six-reel feature which will be the attraction at the Liberty Theatre on Thursday, when this super feature will be in this city for the first time. The story is new to the screen as well as the scenic background which was furnished by real scenes made in Scotland by an American director.

The story has to do with a real band of gypsies, Scotch lads and lassies, the laird of the village and Scottish homes and gardens. The reason the picture was made abroad was because nowhere in this country could this story be truthfully pictured. It has every element of romance that has been woven around a gypsy queen, and her subjects, with knives, daggers, hearts aflame terminating in a happy marriage which should make it the most interesting picture seen here in many a day.

The interest of local theatre-goers has been aroused to unusual pitch by the announced appearance at the Liberty Theatre on Sunday of the latest Universal-Jewel master-feature, "The Virgin of Stamboul," with Priscilla Dean as the star and directed by Tod Browning.

It has been nearly a year since Priscilla Dean has flashed on a local screen, and her return is everywhere pronounced as a triumph. "The Virgin of Stamboul" was written especially for Miss Dean by H. H. Van Loan, and the author has endeavored to paint a picture of "the wickedest city in the world." Director Browning has faithfully followed his story and reproduced his word painting in living, breathing scenes. Vast cities were built for the production, famous landmarks reproduced with marvelous realism, the Great Arabian Desert filmed for many scenes in the story and thousands of men, women and children used for atmospheric effect.

The story is said to be rich in dramatic quality, arousing sympathy and suspense, causing the spectators to smile and weep, and with a wealth of real, red-blooded action to set the pulses throbbing.

From the opening scene, showing the ancient city of Stamboul as it appears today, and Miss Dean, as the untamed desert girl who ekes out an existence by dancing and begging in the streets, plying her trade, to the last fade-out, showing Sari, her soul cleansed and happy in her new-found love, the story is one succession of dynamic situations, enacted for the principal part by Wheeler Oakman as the captain of the Black Horse Troop, Wallace Beery as the sheik, A. Warren as the Hoja, Edward Burns as the American tourist, Ethel Hitchcock as the favorite of the harem, Eugene Forde as the mother, and many other well known players who surround the fascinating "Miss Dean."

SCHOLARSHIP REQUIREMENTS ARE RAISED AT STANFORD

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., July 28.—Scholarship requirements of Leland Stanford University have again been tightened, in accordance with the administration's policy to keep Stanford scholarship the highest in the west. The new rules provide a sliding scale of requirements which become more stringent as each quarter passes. Students dismissed because of failure cannot re-enter until they have completed one year's work at another university or with a private tutor.
