SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath, Irene V. Alexander, Plaintiff, vs. John Thomas Alexander, Defendant. To John Thomas Alexander, Defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the fifth day of August, 1920, that being the expiration of the six weeks publication of this summons as prescribed by the order for publication thereof, made by the court, and if you fail so to answer, the plaintiff will take a default and decree against you dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and yourself, and also such other and further relief, including alimony, as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is published by order of Hon. D. V. Kuykendall, Judge of the above named court, duly made on the 23rd day of June, 1920.

The date of the first publication hereof is June 23, 1920.

F. H. MILLS, Attorney for Plaintiff, Klamath Falls, Ore.

The lumber industry of the United States now has its principal center in the Pacific northwest, where the timber resources are located; it is predicted that the pulpwood producing center of the future will be in Alaska and the Pacific northwest, for the same reason.

Farmers' wives living in the vicinity of Manhattan, Kan., have established an up-to-date clubroom in town, where they have taken their luncheon and rest during their shopping tours and gather for the discussion of matters of common interest.

Miss Hilda Hitchings, who was born with only a left arm, became an expert lawn tennis player and succeeded in winning many championships in her native land of New Zealand. Miss Hitchings, who is at present living in London, still plays a fine game.

A motion picture actress needs more clothes than some people imagine. No frock is ever worn in more than one film, and that often means that an actress has to provide almost fifty each of dresses, hats, boudoir gowns, innumerable shoes, and other knick-knacks, in a year.

The average body contains some two million sweat glands. Each of these is a quarter of an inch deep, and the whole would measure about nine miles.

ENTIRE NATION BACKS COOLIDGE CANDIDATE TOLD

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 29.—"This nomination is tendered you as the spontaneous wish of your party," said Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky, principal speaker at the ceremonies attending the notification here of Governor Calvin Coolidge of his nomination as candidate of the Republican party for vice president.

"The west called to the east," Governor Morrow said, "north and south heard the call and the nation made the answer."

Governor Morrow attacked the Democratic national administration for what he termed its hesitation, blundering and stubbornness and called the league of nations an attempt to bind the United States to the bloody feuds of Europe.

"It is fitting," Mr. Morrow said, "that in Massachusetts at this fountain of American inspiration, we solemnly determine that the heritage which made us free, independent and prosperous, shall not be bartered for a mess of unknown pottage."

"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Governor Morrow continued. "At home grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue to, press for and demand solution and upon their proper solution depends the prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."

AT THE THEATERS

ROMANY "Where Love Runs Wild," the six-reel super-feature which comes to the Liberty Theatre tonight, is a wonderful story of Scottish and gypsy life. Produced in Scotland by F. Morton Thornton, one of the best known American directors, it has a magnificent setting of Scottish scenery in which a most unusual love story is told. To secure the correct setting and atmosphere for this picture Director Thornton spent three months with a gypsy caravan making ROMANY "Where Love Runs Wild." He succeeded beyond his wildest expectations in portraying gypsy life. The wild, untrammelled life of these nomads is but vaguely known to the everyday world. In this great feature their picturesque ways form a vivid background for an enthralling romance between the son of a wealthy Scottish landowner and the gypsy queen.

Frank Mayo, one of the most popular players in the silent drama, the star of such successes as "A Little Brother of the Rich," "The Brute Breaker," "Lasca" and "The Peddler of Lies," has the stellar role in "Burnt Wings," the newest Universal production which will be shown at the Liberty Theatre Friday. In this feature Mr. Mayo plays a role entirely different from any in which he has appeared in recent years.

An English paper mill once turned out a roll of paper one hundred miles long without a break. Seventy-five years ago Mexico and the United States covered approximately equal areas of North America.
