PERSONAL MENTION

V. R. Griffith, a traveling salesman, has been here on a business trip and left on the morning train for Portland.

F. H. Castrell left this morning for a four months' pleasure trip to Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Quilitch and son, Fred, were passengers on the morning train for San Francisco where they will enjoy a ten days' vacation.

Mrs. A. B. Price and Miss E. Bach came down last night from Crater Lake and left on the morning train for San Francisco.

Mrs. G. E. Carroll went to Marshfield, Oregon, this morning where she will make a brief visit with friends.

Mrs. L. Jacobs and son, Rudolph, left this morning for Eugene where they will visit Mrs. Jacobs' daughter for a couple of weeks.

Irving F. Bross and Charles Parker left this morning for their home in San Francisco after having spent two weeks here on a vacation and outing trip.

F. C. Purinton has been here on a brief business trip and returned this morning to his home in Portland.

L. L. Roberts was a passenger on the morning train for San Francisco. He has been here on a week's business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Bardoni, tourists, left this morning for their home in Sacramento.

R. J. Harrington, of McCloud, California, has been to Crater Lake and returned this morning to his home.

Mrs. I. J. Brownlee and children left this morning for Portland where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mitchell, who have been spending their vacation in this city, were passengers on the morning train for their home in Portland.

Miss Adelaide Schubert, who has been here visiting her relatives and friends, returned to her home in San Francisco this morning.

Mrs. W. F. Daily left this morning for San Luis Obispo, California, to visit her parents for two weeks.

Mrs. T. Norlock and Miss Katherine Carson, of Seattle, arrived on the train last night for a few weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davenport. Mrs. Barbara Schon, a sister of Mrs. Davenport, came in last night also, to visit with her sister. She will look after her timber interests while here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mayor have moved from their former residence at 929 High street to 206 Fourth street.
