AT THE THEATERS

Nowhere on earth is beauty such a wonderful asset as on the screen, for the tell-tale camera registers every slight defect and brings into full relief lines and marks that can be easily concealed on the stage.

Betty Blythe is considered one of the most stunning beauties in motion pictures. She was chosen for the role of Beauty in the New York stage production of "Experience," a few years ago, and now has one of the leading roles in "Burnt Wings," the Universal photodrama starring Frank Mayo, which is to be shown at the Liberty Theatre tonight. The many smart gowns Miss Blythe wears in the production accentuate her pleasing appearance.

Betty Blythe is well known to all theatregoers. She has played leading roles in a dozen successful productions, and is particularly effective in the part of Helen Cartwright in "Burnt Wings"—a girl who believes that her father's money can buy anything, even a man's love.

Those who love the sea will be thrilled with the scenes in "The Shark," a William Fox presentation featuring George Walsh, which shows Saturday at the Liberty Theatre.

Much of the action takes place on a tramp oil steamer sailing from Mexico to South American ports and carrying a crew who fear their captain and his mate because of their strength and cruelty.

The plot of the story is worked out while the ship is traveling at full speed. The action is speedy, too, and everyone is held in breathless suspense when the hero, to save the heroine's honor, fires the cargo of oil which explodes and blows up the ship. But the happy ending of this forceful and tragic play leaves a feeling of intense satisfaction.

Critics who have had an opportunity to obtain a pre-release view of the latest Universal-Jewel production, "The Virgin of Stamboul," starring Priscilla Dean, have been united in their praise of this picturesque photodrama which is announced for next Sunday at the Liberty Theatre.

The story was written especially for Priscilla Dean by H. H. Van Loan, and it is said that he kept her vision before him constantly during the months he was at work on this colorful romance, the scenes of which are laid in Stamboul, the wickedest city in the world. The result is, from all accounts, that Van Loan has supplied Miss Dean with a role that permits her to exercise the thousand and one phases of her magnetic art.

The central figure in "The Virgin of Stamboul" is Sari, a beggar girl on the streets of the Turkish city, wild as an Arabian steed, and with a soul as the fith in the streets. While secreted in the mosque, whither she has gone, against the law, to pray that her soul may be cleansed, she is witness to a brutal crime and become embroiled in a chain of circumstances as fantastic as the Arabian Nights.

Sari's meeting with the young American commander of the Black Horse Troop, composed of the scum of Asia, her wooing by the powerful sheik, her imprisonment in and escape from the harem, her wild ride across the desert at the head of the untamed cavalry—all are but a few incidents from a story that is alive with tense drama and stirring situations.

LOWER FUR TAX

WINNIPEG, Man., July 30.—Weakness of the American fur market with its reflex action upon the sale of furs in Manitoba, has resulted in the provincial government readjusting the scale of royalties taken on furs originating in Manitoba. A new schedule of royalties reduced to approximately 50 per cent of the tax as imposed at inception of the act last spring has been made effective by an order in council.

The word "spinster" owes its use to the fact that in olden days the law did not allow any woman to marry until she had "spun" a complete set of bed linen.
