BARBER A GENIUS

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 4.—The tears with which very small boys sometimes meet their first haircut generally are obviated in a Salt Lake City department store's special barbershop for children. There the youngsters are seated not in chairs but on hobby-horses of special design. The novelty of this experience usually compensates for the somewhat terrifying process of having their hair cut.

Gen. Leonard Wood says public opinion should compel timid officials to act when agitators are at work. "There will be no red flag where there are brave public officials."

THIEVES ISLE NOW JAPANESE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 4.—The passing of Magellan's "Isle of the Thieves," the Ladronez, from German to Japanese control, marks the third time within a generation that the inhabitants have been subjected to a change in official language.

"I'm going home to move my family a few miles south to Guam, under the Stars and Stripes, where they can talk any language they please," declared Juan Flores, discharged soldier, at the Marine corps recruiting station here before departing to the Pacific Isle.

He told how his parents were content under the Spanish rule, when in 1899, the Ladronez, known also as the Marianne Islands, were disposed of, the southern island of Guam going to the United States and the northern islands, including Saipan where his family lived, being sold to Germany. The Spanish, in the days when they had taken the island from the Portuguese, decreed Spanish as the official language.

The Germans in 1899 made German the official language.

Now, as a result of the war, German control of the Marianne Islands, with the Marshall and Caroline groups went to Japan and Japanese is the official language.

The population of the Mariannes under Japanese control is 10,000 of whom about 3,000 are Japanese.
