That Impart an Atmosphere of Luxurious Elegance to the Home

WE HAVE just received another shipment of richly colored Axminster and Brussels rugs. Our stock of rugs is larger and finer than any in Southern Oregon—and, upon comparison, the prices will be found LOWER than those demanded elsewhere.

Now is the time to consider plans for beautifying the home. In three weeks or so the children will be starting to school, within a month the Fall styles will be on display. Both these events will engage all your attention. Thoughts of brightening the home, making it cheerier and more liveable in anticipation of the long Winter season will be thrust into the background. Right now there is a lull between the style seasons—it is an ideal time to think of ways and means to make your home even more perfect.

We are prepared to assist you with a carefully selected, reasonably priced stock of Rugs and other house furnishings. We are making this "August House-Furnishings Campaign" for the purpose of directing your attention to the many things we have that will make your home life less toilsome and far more comfortable.

AT THE THEATERS

You have seen Will Rogers in "Almost a Husband," "Water, Water Everywhere" and "Jubilo." You have been moved to laughter and thrilled by his rugged personality, his unique acting powers, his great homely realism. Now Will Rogers appears in the most gripping of all his Goldwyn vehicles, "The Strange Boarder." He portrays the plight of an honest man with an infinite faith in human nature's finer side encircled by crooked, scheming men and women. His characterization of Sam Gardner will take you by storm. Surrounding him in this production is a cast of the highest merit, Irene Rich, Jimmy Rogers, his own son, James Mason, Doris Pawn, Lionel Belmore, Jack Richardson, Sydney Deane and Lewis J. Durham. Clarence Badger directed this wonderfully artistic and moving adaptation of Will Payne's Saturday Evening Post story. At the Star Theatre to night.

WEATHER RECORD

Hereafter the Herald will publish the mean and maximum temperatures and precipitation record as taken by the U. S. Reclamation service station. Publication will cover the day previous to the paper's issue, up to 8 o'clock of that day.

MEXICAN SOLDIERS LEAVE GUN FOR PLOW

MEXICO CITY, July 21. (By Mail.)—More than 5000 officers and privates in the Mexican army retired from military service in the first week of July, according to El Heraldo.

This general withdrawal from the army is the result of a campaign recently launched by the government to induce a large part of the soldiers of Mexico "to abandon the rifle for the plow," as the Mexican press is fond of phrasing it.

The government's campaign for a smaller army is due to the realization that vast tracts of valuable agricultural land are in urgent need of development and that many factories in Mexico are short of help. It is pointed out that the present military situation is such as to require the services of not more than 50,000 men, thus permitting the other thousands of men under arms to devote themselves to the task of economically rehabilitating the country.

The recent uprisings of Generals Carlos Osuna and Jesus H. Guajardo have not altered the government's determination to reduce the personnel of the army. According to General Antonio I. Villarrear, secretary of agriculture and development, these two movements do not "present a military problem."

Since the close of the war women of Belgium, Serbia and Roumania have been given municipal suffrage.
