B. F. Harris, the well known Western banker and farmer, recently told the Rotary Club that "the greatest danger in America today is the lack of the right kind of leadership among hand and brain workers; and the lack of courage and 100 per cent American leadership on the part of our public officials, and on the part of men like us."

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

DARKENS BEAUTIFULLY AND RESTORES ITS NATURAL COLOR AND LUSTRE AT ONCE

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur. An easier way is to get the phur recipe at home, though, is trou- ready to use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it is done so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes dark, glossy, soft, and luxuriant, and you appear years younger.

EX-KAISER HAS QUIET EXILE

DOORN, Holland, July 19. (By Mail.)—The former German Emperor William, while professing a desire to lead at Doorn the quiet life of a country gentleman, has nevertheless created a little court around him—somewhat larger than that which he had at Amerongen and Dutch newspapers have already begun calling Doorn "The Little Potsdam."

The Allies' demands upon Holland to guard the former Emperor closely have made it impossible for William to mingle with the Dutch country gentry who have estates about Doorn and the house where he is said to expect to spend his remaining days is just like a little bit of Germany.

Strict military order prevails outside the House of Doorn, where passersby must not be too curious. Within the discipline is Prussian. William's only associates are German. His entire staff, including approximately 40 servants, are German, with one exception—the village barber, a Dutchman, is called in now and then to trim his hair or beard.

When at Amerongen, William went frequently to Doorn by automobile, but now, he is seldom seen outside the wire fence of his estate, which villagers call his "40 hectare cage." Forty hectares are about 80 acres.

The few times he has been out, he has paid visits to his former host, Count Bentinck, at Amerongen. Now and then, the former crown prince or others of William's sons have been permitted to visit the exile, largely because of the illness of their mother, but, from day to day, William seldom sees any new faces—only his daily associates.

Houston Thompson, Federal Trade Commissioner, says that fully $500,000,000 is annually squandered by the public in "wild-cat" investments.

ENGLISH MUST BE ECONOMICAL

LONDON, July 19. (By Mail.)—English people have determined upon a policy of strict economy resulting in a considerable increase in the number of bankruptcies during the last few months. These failures have occurred not only in London but also in the provinces. Business men, however, are confronted by the fact that the aggregate number is far below the total for pre-war years, figures for 1919 being 737 as against 2,856 for 1914.

While many reasons are advanced for this state of affairs, the most acceptable one in business circles is the attitude of the buying public which has decided only to purchase absolute necessities. In consequence traders who have purchased large stocks of goods at fancy prices in anticipation of quick and handsome profits, find themselves with "white elephants" on their hands and a non-buying public.

The goods had to be disposed of frequently at a big loss.

The recent bankruptcies included a number of demobilized men who started business with the proceeds of their gratuity and small savings. These men, for the most part, were inexperienced in the ways of trade and when a severe test came, they were forced to close their doors.

A woman proprietor of a high-class millinery shop in Bond street explained recently that wealthy women who before the war bought generously in such specialty shops as hers, were unable to do so now, because of the tremendous increase in the cost of living, wages for servants, etc. These women now are only purchasing the necessities, the business woman added.

From every trade comes the report that shop keepers and business houses generally find themselves with an overstock of goods, purchased in hope of a big buying season this spring and summer.

WILD MAN LOOSE IN ARIZONA FOOTHILLS

MIAMI, Ariz., Aug. 9.—This town has been wishing some circus would come along and capture a man guaranteed to be wild enough for any sideshow. He first appeared several months ago on a hillside near Copper Glance.

He was clad in nothing but an abundance of Arizona atmosphere and Miami people who observed him in the distance immediately notified the police. An unavailing chase followed.

Since then, the mysterious stranger has been seen several times lurking on the outskirts of town. One day, when the men folks of an outlying neighborhood were off at work, the "wild man" appeared. He was clothed at that time, but he pranced on all four around women and children with agility and mournful howls. There was an immediate exodus toward Miami proper and the police had another hard run for nothing. Nobody has been able to establish the man's identity or the reason for his antics.
