BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is aching; if what you eat sours and forms acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before eating more food.
To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate, which is inexpensive and almost tasteless.
Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast.

A Classified Ad will sell it.

AT THE THEATERS

Dolores Cassinelli, the Cameo Girl, whose most recent appearances were as the star of "The Unknown Love" and "Lafayette, We Come!" is the star of "The Virtuous Model," which appears at the Liberty tonight.

Albert Capellani directed "The Virtuous Model" and also adapted it to the screen. Capellani, who is affectionately called "Cap" by all who know him, has been very much in the limelight recently for his productions of Nazimova's "The Red Lantern" and "Out of the Fog," and "The Love Cheat," another of those June Caprice-Creighton Hale comedies.

No less a remarkable feature of "The Virtuous Model" is its cast. Vincent Serrano, who came into fame on the stage as the original Lieutenant Denton in "Arizona," plays the role of the famous sculptor; Marie Chambers, who has many vampire and adventure roles to her credit, is at it once more; and Franklyn Farnum, star of many pictures, is a find in need.

The general consensus of opinion is that screen artists always insist upon being seen at their best on the screen and incidents where they are not displayed to their best advantage are ruthlessly eliminated from the story, but it is no other than the world famous beauty, Mary Pickford who has set this maxim at naught in her forthcoming production, of "Suds," which will be the attraction at the Liberty on Wednesday.

In this clever comedy drama, Our Mary is most frequently seen with her hair slicked back and pinned in a careless knot at the back of her head—dirty, greasy face, pug nose—tattered clothes and huge ungainly clothes. Only occasionally is she seen as her own lovely self.

Instead of sitting in the projection room and saying—"I am not pretty enough in that scene it will have to be eliminated," Miss Pickford sits back in her seat and says to her director, Jack Dillon, "I am afraid we will have to retake that scene, I am not homely enough in it."

But according to reports, one must see this clever story to fully appreciate Mary Pickford's desire for homeliness.

SHARP ADVANCE

According to latest reports old high cost has reached darkest Africa. The price of a sixteenhand, well-marked, coal black wife has gone up from four to six spear heads—Fort Morgan (Colo.) Herald.
