NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

You are hereby notified that the Assessment Rolls for Klamath County for the year 1920 have been compiled by the Assessor and are open to inspection at my office by all persons interested. All taxpayers are requested to examine the valuations placed upon their property for the reason that assessed valuations throughout the county have been generally raised to conform to increase in sale value of property. All persons interested should examine their assessments before the meeting of the board of equalization on the second Monday in September.

J. P. LEE, Assessor of Klamath County. Aug. 6

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Evan R. Reames left the first of the week for their home in San Francisco after an extended visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stenwell have returned from a four weeks' visit at their summer home at Rocky Point.

Mrs. J. E. Drayton and sons, Don and Dale Soule, are expected in tonight from an automobile trip to Crater Lake and Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunrah and Mrs. George Tatum returned last night from a few days' visit at Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Backler and family, accompanied by Miss Esther Catkins, left yesterday for a new day's sampling trip.

Harace E. Ozer, who was mentioned as bookkeeper by the W. E. Peckham company, proceeded to his relatives by the train, and returned here to make his home. He was accompanied by his bride. They will make their home at 443 South Riverside Avenue.

Miss Ross-Elgore, who has been employed by Underwood's Pharmacy for some time, left this morning for Medford. From there she will go to Seaside, where she will visit with an uncle for the rest of the summer.

Miss Octavia De Lap was a passenger on this morning's train for Berkeley, California, where she will take up a post graduate course in the University of California. Miss De Lap graduated last year from that institution.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mortensen and a party of friends have gone to Diamond lake for a camping and fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Markwardt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hirvi, Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Hoeling, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Markwardt, Miss Gladys Markwardt, Miss Dorothy Hamilton, Miss Lottie Fischer and Robert and George Fischer made up a party from Klamath Falls who spent the week-end at Crater Lake.

Ethel Hawhurst, who has been spending her vacation in California, has returned home.

CREWS RETURN TO WORK AFTER SHORT LAYOFF

The construction crews on the Big Lakes company's mill and the new mill of the Klamath Pine Manufacturing company at Shipping, laid off last week on account of lack of material, returned to work yesterday noon, reports F. Hill Hunter, builder of the two plants.

Mr. Hunter said that material was arriving slowly and he thought it probable that there would be another short layoff at the end of this week.

HEARING RESULTS IN DISMISSAL OF CHARGE

Willard Lotches, a Klamath Indian, was arraigned before Bert C. Thomas, United States commissioner, Saturday, charged with having used a dangerous weapon against McKinley Jackson.

The quarrel between Jackson and Lotches was caused by domestic troubles. The testimony brought out evidence that Lotches had fired a rifle at Jackson, but was insufficient to justify holding Lotches and the case was dismissed.

AGED RESIDENT OF MERRILL DIST. DEAD

The body of Richard Martin, aged 80 years, who died Saturday at the home of his son, Oliver Martin, seven miles east of Merrill, was sent this morning from Whitlock's undertaking parlors to Bellingham, Wash., for burial. The decedent came to Klamath county from Bellingham about four years ago.

Death resulted from heart trouble, from which Mr. Martin had suffered for a long time. He had been acutely ill for a week. Besides the son, Oliver Martin, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. H. Parker, who lives on the old McKendree ranch in the valley, and a daughter who lives at Bellingham.

LOGGER HURT WHEN LOAD OF LOGS SLIPS FROM TRUCK

While unloading logs at Wampler's camp near Olney yesterday afternoon, Clayton Burke was severely injured, when the load slipped and all of the logs fell at once. One of the logs struck Mr. Burk, inflicting severe lacerations of the scalp and fracturing his arm. He is in the Warren Hunt hospital.

LOCAL PHARMACIST WRITER OF SONGS

Frank B. Robinson, manager of the Warren Hunt hospital pharmacy, announces receipt of a first payment check from a big eastern song publishing house for the rights to a song entitled "As Long as the Sun Shines in Heaven." Should the song be a success royalties in substantial sums will be forthcoming.

This is the fourth song that he has sold, says Mr. Robinson. One of the former songs had a sale of 16,000 copies. Miss Betty Gaddes, Miss Margaret Worden and other local musicians have tried his latest song, says the author, and praise it highly.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Everesta Ajo, laborer, committed by the county court to the state hospital for the insane at Salem, was taken to Salem today by hospital attendants. Ajo came here from Bend recently. He was arrested by the police last week on the street when his actions showed his abnormal mental conditions.

Les Constans, well-known over the National league circuit as secretary of the Pittsburgh club for more than ten years past, has resigned his position to engage in other business.
