HAVE YOU INSURED YOUR HAY?

A spark blown about by a vagrant breeze, an almost unnoticeable smudge, a small blaze which rapidly develops into an uncontrollable fire, and your hay crop, representing months of care and hard work, is reduced to useless ashes. This is a frequent occurrence throughout the country. You can't bring back the hay, but you can recover its equivalent in dollars if you have had it insured, and dollars can buy more hay. If your hay is not insured you lose heavily and irredeemably. The cost of insurance is nominal. Let us insure your crop in a company that is prompt and reliable. James H. Driscoll, Room 4, Loomis Building.

Irish Travel Stops.

The tourist resorts of Ireland—the Lakes of Killarney and Glengarriff—have suffered greatly during the war and the resumption of normal conditions, with freedom of travel for pleasure, will be required to bring back their old-time prosperity. So Queenstown and, to a smaller degree, the city of Cork has been affected by the entire cessation of the extensive passenger traffic to and from the United States. Queenstown was the principal port for Irish emigration to the United States, and the change in that respect is highly significant. There are more young men in Ireland today than there were for very many years before the war. Emigration, which for the ten years ending March 1, 1911, averaged 38,908 from all Ireland, fell in 1917 to 2,111, and in 1918 to 980 natives of Ireland. Embarkation of emigrants and others from Queenstown which amounted to 20,883 in 1913, and 21,430 in 1914, stopped altogether in November, 1914.

Snakes Friends of Farmer.

A correspondent who is interested in snakes as well as flowers and birds and the other more popular things in nature writes that he has gratifying success in locating snakes by merely listening for their rustling in the dry leaves. If one's ears are specially trained for snake noises there is no good reason why this method should not be really practical. Unquestionably the majority of wood wanderers are almost blind in this matter of snakes. Unless we almost step on him we seldom know that he is lurking near at hand and remaining very still in the hope that he will not be noted. All our snakes are practically defenseless. They are not only inoffensive and timid creatures, but also highly useful friends of the farmer. Possibly the only snakes are in less danger than the adults. The little fellows are less conspicuous, and, as before noted, they can hide in very small refuges.

Biddy's Logic.

Mistress (after absence)—It's no use, Bridget, you've worn one of my new skirts and you can't get out of it.
Bridget—Begorry, mum, if that's so O'd be wearin' it this mornin', wouldn't O?—Boston Transcript.

Come in and Test the New Edison against your emotions

We want to give you Mr. Edison's Realism Test. We want you to decide for yourself whether the New Edison brings you music as you like to hear it.

Think back to the last time you heard a great singer (or instrumentalist). His art made you feel emotions. In those emotions, you found your pleasure.

You want the New Edison to bring you the same emotions. The Realism Test helps you ascertain whether it does. It's a scientific test—fascinating to enjoy. Hear it, and you'll know what a miraculous art the New Edison brings into your home.

Ask about our Budget Plan. It shows you how to organize your dollars on a thrift basis and make easy the purchase of a New Edison.
