AT THE THEATERS

William Farnum again will be seen in a stirring Zane Grey story, "The Last of the Duanes," at the Liberty theater Sunday. In this production Mr. Farnum gives a great portrayal of a Texas character who has become a killer through no fault of his own. Finally he becomes a member of the state rangers and helps to run to earth a band of robbers and rustlers with whom he had been thrown in contact during his exile from civilization.

A pretty love story runs through this stirring drama of the border days in Texas.

STUDYING LIFE OF MALARIA CARRIER

CHICO, Cal., Aug. 20.—With a view of tracing the source of malaria and wiping out the disease, Lieutenant William C. Purdy of the United States Public Health Service has under way an important series of experiments on the ranch of Dr. E. B. Copeland, south of Nelson.

Purdy is endeavoring to discover why mosquitoes will breed in one rice field and not in another. He believes that if he can solve this conundrum he will have taken a big step in the ultimate solution of the mosquito problem and the attendant disease of malaria.

The Alaskan forests not only contain approximately 100,000,000 cords of pulpwood timber, but also the second chief essential of a paper-manufacturing industry, enormous water power possibilities.

UNION MEETS AT LABOR TEMPLE
Over Sugarman's Store

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 20.—A meeting of the teachers of the state, under call of the executive committee of the state association of teachers, will be held here August 21 to consider and prepare legislation to be submitted to the next legislature, which is to sit in January.

It is possible, officers of the association state, that some measures will be initiated at the meeting and submitted to the voters at the November election.

Higher pay for teachers in Montana is to be the central theme of discussion.

Miss May has the role of Beatrice Ridley, newly married and suspicious of the notes which her husband gets every morning from Honeysuckle Inn. She consults Douglas MacLean, in the role of John Widgast, a lawyer, and they resolve to investigate. In the meantime, the wives of Widgast and Pidgeon, his partner, have become jealous of the divorce business which their spouses find necessary to talk over with pretty co-respondents and other designing creatures.

AT THE THEATERS

Doris May and Douglas MacLean will be the attractions at the Star theater for two days beginning today, in a screen version of the stage play, "What is Your Husband Doing?" The picture is described as a rollicking comedy about young husbands and wives and a grand mix-up at a lively roadhouse.

MONTANA TEACHERS WANT MORE PAY

GOLDEN RULE VANNICE BROTHERS

It is surely time to consider School Clothes

THIS is one of the hardest problems that confront the parents of today. Children must be dressed economically, and they must be dressed well. At the present high prices of clothing, the above statement seems inconsistent. Knowing that this would be one of the hardest conditions to overcome, this fall, we laid in a large stock of

Oregon Cassimere Suits for Boys

OREGON cassimere is an all-wool, pre-shrunk suiting, firmly woven; which will not get shiny, stays pressed for weeks, and just wears and wears. These suits may be put in the tub and scrubbed, and they come out spic and span; and continue their iron wearing qualities.

And best of all, we are selling these suits at "Before the War" Prices

WE want to impress as forcibly as possible that these suits are wonderful values. The tailoring, the style, and above all, the material, are better than the ordinary.

Real "School Shoes" Are Hard to Find

REALIZING this, we bought heavily when the opportunity presented, and are able to offer the best school shoes, in blucher, button, and English lasts in black, and blucher and English lasts in brown. These shoes come in both calf and gunmetal, and are wonderfully well worth the prices asked.

Jack Tar Togs for Girls

TO those who want the best—in style and quality, these all-purpose garments make a lasting appeal. They are smart, becoming, and exceptionally well made, with sturdy materials, double-stitched seams, quality trimmings, and fast colors.

For little tots, growing youngsters, misses, and mothers, there are Jack Tar Togs in a variety of designs, and for school-wear, they really have no equal.

A girl wishes, above all, to have that clean, fresh, comfortable appearance which is so notable among the American girls, and what can be cleaner, fresher, or more wholesome than a Jack Tar Middy and dark skirt, or a Jack Tar Dress in either white or blue?

We have them in all sizes, and the prices are, surprisingly reasonable.

ley's letters are that he owns a share in the inn and is trying to sell it out. On the same evening that he goes to close the deal, taking Pidgeon with him to draw up the papers, Widgast and the lawyers' wives and Beatrice also appear at the roadhouse. And to cap the climax the place is raided by the police. Matters are cleared up the next morning in a police court in a most amusing fashion.

Lake George and Lake Champlain and lumber camps on the Schroon river furnish the scenic background for "Impossible Catherine," which is billed for Saturday at the Liberty theater.

All the lumber camp atmosphere was photographed at Schroon river, and later a trip was made to Lake Champlain and Lake George for other scenes. Too many superlatives cannot be applied to the beautiful scenic effects in "Impossible Catherine."

As Catherine Kimberly, the sportloving, man-hating heroine of this play, Virginia Pearson is seen in a role which gives full scope to her dramatic powers. Sheldon Lewis is featured with Miss Pearson in the role of an Indian guide and trapper, White Cloud. The cast is large and capable, and the story has a laugh, a tear, and a thrill.
