NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Both Will Hays and George White, republican and democratic national committee men, respectively have expressed readiness to appear before the senate campaign expenditure committee.

C. OF C. DELEGATION TO MEET SOLONS

The regular Wednesday members forum meeting of the Klamath county chamber of commerce has been postponed this week owing to the fact that the speakers will be unable to arrive before Saturday, at which date the forum will be held. The speakers this week will include Senator McNary and Congressmen Sinnott and Hawley.

The chamber of commerce is sending a delegation tomorrow to Crescent lake to meet the large delegation from Eugene, who will accompany the congressional party that far for the purpose of inspecting the road between here and Eugene. Klamath county is working with Eugene for the purpose of opening this road as a future highway.

NO TIMBER LOST IN FIRE, REPORT

Jack Kimball reports today that the clean-up fire that has been burning for some time in the Aspen lake and Rock creek regions is now entirely under control. There have been no timber losses from this fire, in spite of its appearing to be rather a bad one. Mr. Kimball said this morning that it burned down the mountain instead of up and there wasn't any big timber in its track. The only other big fire is one near the old Potter mill near Pokogama.

MICKIE SAYS:

IT'S HARD TO MAKE folks understand sometimes that we can't print half a dozen handbills very much cheaper than a hundred but it's just as much work to set the type and put it on the press for one as for a hundred, so we gotta charge most as much for 'em as we can.

Could the reporter be a little bit kinder to your little Sunday?

TENNESSEE GOVERNOR CERTIFIES SUFFRAGE

NASHVILLE, Aug. 24.—Frank M. Thompson, attorney general of Tennessee, announced today that Governor Roberts this morning had certified Tennessee's ratification of the suffrage amendment and had sent the certification to Secretary of State Colby.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 24.—Chief Justice Lansden, of the state supreme court, agreed today to review the proceedings in the Chancery court which issued a temporary injunction, preventing the certification of Washington ratification by the legislature of the federal suffrage amendment.

IRISH RIOTING FLAMES AGAIN

LISBURN, Ireland, Aug. 24.—Burning of Nationalists' property here continued until after last midnight. Among the buildings destroyed was the Catholic parochial hall. Virtually all Nationalists have left town in the face of Loyalist reprisals for the murder of Police Inspector Sweeney Sunday.

BELFAST, Aug. 24.—Rioting was renewed here last night. In the most menacing districts there were collisions between Unionists and Sinn Feiners, with shooting and stone throwing taking place.

HEAVYWEIGHTS ARE SIGNED UP

When Wild Bill Reed, the up-and-at-'em Frisco swatsmith, and Earl Ritchie, the Oregon demon, prance to the center of the squared circle in this city on Labor day, boxing devotees will see the beginning of a contest that will fully repay them for their faith in human nature evidenced when they kissed good-bye to their do-re-me at the box office window.

Matchmaker Frank Smith has tied up both boxers with contracts that amount to something more than mere "scraps of paper," but there is a real scrap in connection with it at that, and there is going to be a sweet little "set-to" when these big boys face each other on the all-important day.

You've just got to admit that Smithy used commendable judgment when he made it obligatory for each boxer to agree to continue the contest to the end of the scheduled ten rounds, even though one of them should lose his head long enough to cause him to foul the other fellow. Of course Wild Bill and the demon never have been partial to that fouling stuff, but the abrupt finishes to two fights on the last card here imply that almost anything is liable to happen in a prize ring, and Smithy says he is going to give fight patrons a run for their money even if he has to fracture a couple of ribs and a custom or two while making the attempt. So, if a foul occurs, and the fighter fouled is able to continue the milling, it will be "on with the bout" and fight fans will not be compelled to meander home nursing well founded grievances in their thick boxes.

Reed and Ritchie need no introduction to western fight fans. Reed has been in more fistle engagements than there are notches on William S. Hart's movie gun, and Ritchie has climbed through the ropes oftener than Lillian Russell has been married, and that's going some for any ringster.

Both big men have agreed to train publicly several days before the big day rolls around, and the public will thus be enabled to get a pretty good line on the boys.

Ritchie appears to be in fine fighting fettle, and says he feels equal to the task of knocking the freckles off Champion Jack Dempsey. Reed says he might not be able to relieve the champion of his freckles, but he is cocksure that he is in shape to

LEGION OPPOSES LINK RIVER DAM BUILDING

PORTLAND, Aug. 24.—Immediate cessation of work by the California-Oregon Power company on the Link river dam in the upper Klamath Country, which it is feared would flood 10,000 acres of government land, and conservation of water for 30,000 acres as proposed in the Raker bill and 75,000 acres at Tule lake are the demands made by the American Legion, department of Oregon, in protests telegraphed to the department of the interior by G. Lane Goodell, state vice-commander of the legion.

Lemuel Bolls, national adjutant of the American Legion, and John Taylor, chief counsel of the legion at Washington, D. C., have been informed of the fight begun by Klamath post to preserve the interests of ex-service men who have preferential rights of settlement on the land in question. In a reply received at state headquarters in Portland from Mr. Taylor, it is asserted that the matter has been taken up with the interior department, and a decision from Secretary Payne is expected soon.

From J. H. Carnahan, commander of Klamath post, Vice-Commander Goodell received the following telegram:

"Senator Chamberlain and Representative Sinnott have sent strong messages to Secretary Payne calling for immediate cessation of work by the power company on the Link river dam until the question of protecting government land and conserving water for 105,000 more acres can be settled finally.

"The power company is working with feverish haste to complete the dam before action can be taken to protect our interests. Immediate pressure is imperative if the situation is to be saved for the boys of the legion."

CONTEMPT CASE BEING HEARD

Hearing of contempt charges against County Judge R. H. Bunnell, Commissioners Short and Fordyce, Oskar Huber, highway contractor, J. W. Moorman, sub-contractor, C. A. Leighton, contractor's superintendent, and the state highway commissioners, was begun this morning in Judge Kuykendall's court.

A number of witnesses were on hand and it appeared that the examination would last all day. Mr. Huber was not in court. Defendants were represented by Wilson S. Wiley, Robert B. Cheyne, on whose affidavit charging defendants with disregard of a recent injunction order the proceeding is based, was present with J. H. Carnahan, his counsel.

Cheyne charges that defendants, after being commanded by the court to cease acts of damage and trespass on his premises, through which a highway is being constructed, permitted fences to go unrepared, stock to wander upon his land and failed to provide means for irrigation water to flow across the road.

FORMER COUNTY JUDGE IS CRITICALLY ILL, ASHLAND

J. B. Griffith, former county judge of Klamath county, suffered a stroke of paralysis and is critically ill at his home in Ashland, according to word received this morning by his daughter, Mrs. Charles De Lap. Mr. and Mrs. De Lap left at once for Ashland as did Levi and Clyde Griffith, sons of the stricken man.

Up to three years ago, when he moved to Ashland, Mr. Griffith had lived here for years.

drive 'em backwards—clear out of sight. So, there you are. There is a big fight looming up in the horizon, and, with the other good events that will be included in the Labor day card, the entertainment is sure to be just a little bit better than anything that has ever been jerked off in this neck 'n' the woods.

C. OF C. SECURES INCREASE IN 'GAS' SUPPLY

E. B. Hall, president of the chamber of commerce, returned last week from a trip to California. While in San Francisco he devoted much time to the securing of more gas for Klamath Falls. The chamber of commerce has been actively working on this proposition for some time, and with the information in the hands of Mr. Hall, he was able to present the matter to the officials in such a manner that they promptly granted an additional supply, which was shipped from the refineries last Friday.

This additional supply, which amounts to about 750 barrels, will arrive some time this week and will be continued until the situation is more nearly normal. As stated by the chamber of commerce in a previous report, Klamath Falls, while it has been short of the required amount of gasoline, still received up to the present time 64 per cent more than it did last year. The growth of industries in this section has been so pronounced and so rapid that it has been difficult for the officials to realize the big demands unless they were on the ground.

With the big crops on the Tule Lake to harvest, and crops in various other sections to be taken care of, it would seem that the action of the chamber of commerce in this matter is timely and valuable.

VISITOR FINDS FINE FISHING

Klamath county water contains a fresh fishy surprise for L. S. Upton, Sacramento sporting goods dealer, every time he comes back, and he's been coming year after year for the past 10 years. Yesterday he returned from the annual vacation among the lakes, and declares that Diamond lake trout are the best and gamiest specimens of the whole piscatorial tribe.

Mr. Upton was accompanied by his son, Lauren, and J. B. Chambers, local dealer in sporting goods who is his annual outing companion. The Uptons came up the coast to Eureka and crossed over to Grants Pass. At Ashland they picked up Mr. Chambers and the trio passed 10 days along the Rogue river, around Crater lake, winding up on Diamond lake Sunday.

Mr. Upton says he took the first trout on a fly, ever taken in Diamond lake, which is just opened to fishing after stocking five years ago. Others have been using spoons but Mr. Upton wanted to experiment with a fly. He landed an eight-pounder. The party together landed 27 fish from Diamond lake, ranging from three to ten pounds.

"I've fished in many streams and lakes," said Mr. Upton, "and I never saw anything like it. I never met gamier fish and insect food is so plentiful that they can't help being fat, heavy fellows. It's wonderful.

"If I were a resident of Klamath county I'd advocate conservation early and late. The trout are plentiful now but just as soon as road conditions are bettered and news of the hunting and fishing afforded here is spread a little further, the tourists will be down on you in droves, and it takes only a little while to fish out a lake. It takes years to replenish it. I'd be yelling for cutting the limit in two and for increasing the propagation facilities to the utmost and planting fish in every available stream."

IMPROVEMENT BONDS, $48,000, AUTHORIZED

Ordinances authorizing sale of bonds for the improvement of Conger avenue; Klamath avenue from Ninth to Eleventh streets; Pine street from Eighth to Eleventh, and Washington street from First to Third were introduced at the meeting of the city council last night and passed to second reading. They authorize bond sales as follows:

Conger avenue	$15,990
Pine street	13,800
Klamath avenue	7,510
Washington	11,254

Had Councilman Upp not been absent the ordinances would have been passed as emergency measures last night. In his absence, however, the council lacked the necessary three-fourths vote for emergency and the measures will be up for final passage next Monday night. The council adjourned to that specific date, which is not a regular meeting night being the fifth Monday of the month.

Gambling Law Passed
The amendment to the anti-gambling ordinance, providing for revocation of the license of any proprietor of a public place that tolerates gambling, was adopted.

The ordinance establishing sidewalk grades on Ninth and Washington streets was passed.

Action on Permits
Application of John Kunts to conduct a set of games at Klamath and Eighth streets, laid over from last week, was denied.

The application of J. G. Brenton and P. Martinez to conduct the Ross rooming house, 494 Main street, formerly managed by Mrs. Eita Moore, was granted. The application was made last week and laid over.

Louis Robbins was granted a permit to build a dwelling house only on his lot on the easterly end of Main street. There was a protest against his building operations last week, because he remodeled an old barn. Dr. A. A. Soule and other neighbors declared the building was insanitary. Robbins wanted to build a cowshed also, but was denied permission.

G. C. Lorenz was granted permission to cut the pavement in front of the new Evans building to make sewer connection.

Permit was granted Oscar Shive to move a dwelling from lot 2, block 10, original town, to block 51, Nichols addition. (The location is on Ninth street and Mr. Shive has the foundation for his home practically completed.)

TROPHY FOR BEST SHOWING IN PARADE

The central labor council, through its Labor day committee, has secured a handsome solid silver plaque, mounted on an ornamental slab of native wood, as a trophy to be awarded for the "best showing" made by any unit taking part in the Labor day parade, September 6.

Invitations to participate in the contest have been mailed to all business houses in town and several acceptances are already on file with the Labor day committee. It is clearly stipulated that competition for this trophy is open to all, and not confined to labor unions. In a word, the souvenir is to be awarded to the entry, whether a union, a business house, float or other unit. Award will be made by an impartial committee consisting of several persons, only one of whom will be a member of a labor organization.

Keen rivalry is being manifested and elaborate arrangements being made for possession of the award.
