WILL TEACH DANCING ART

Professor and Mrs. Colvin of New York City have arrived in Klamath Falls and will open a class in dancing. They will announce in tomorrow's Herald the location of their studio.

Professor and Mrs. Colvin come highly recommended from other cities where they have conducted dancing classes. They will give private lessons. They can teach all the standard dances and assert that full knowledge of dancing can be gained in six lessons under their instruction.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER FRED PETERSON

I will be too busy during the campaign to make a personal call upon voters, but will from time to time discuss issues through paid advertisements. Today the subject is personal, and if I seem to be "tooting my horn" you will pardon me.

Arrived in Klamath from Illinois in 1905, "broke" and friendless, I have held my own financially, and made a few friends (also some enemies). Have been principal of various high schools of the county, and served as county superintendent for four years. Am at present president of County fair board, director of the Federal Farm Loan Association, and a ranch owner.

I know Klamath County, its people, and something of its needs. I expect the support, as well as for myself, I will try to be non-factional. Signed: FRED PETERSON.

Republican Candidate for County Commissioner. Paid adv.

EARL SHEPHERD'S WAY

There are many different methods of shipping pianos but the Shepherd Way of shipping in harness and unboxed is by far the most satisfactory owing to the saving of 225 pounds, the weight of each piano box; also cost of the boxes and boxing and unboxing.

Many more pianos can be placed in a car and special carload prices are given to the dealer who can buy this way which results in savings to the buying public. The Shepherd record for sales is a strong one for they claim to have sold five pianos to one by any other firm over the entire territory of seven counties.

HEAVYWEIGHTS START TRAINING

Earl Ritchie and "Wild Bill" Reed, heavyweights who will stage the 10-round main event Labor day, signed articles yesterday and both will immediately start training. That it will be no tea party is attested by the fact that the agreement is on a winner-take-all basis.

Reed starts training today and promises to be in the best condition of his life. Ritchie will work out in the county but is under agreement not to neglect training.

Terry Kellar, one of Jack Dempsey's sparring partners and one of the country's well known boxers, has issued a challenge to the winner of the bout and it is understood he will be accommodated.

Records of the contestants will show a follower of the fistie sport that the big fellows are evenly matched.

Ritchie has beaten such men as Willie Meehan, who is expected to meet Dempsey soon, Spud Murphy, Kayo Krivoski, Sailor Grodin, Albert Hess, Soldier Marples, a local bout, and others.

Reed has defeated Spud Murphy, Jim Barry, Kid Lewis, Frankie Gage, Gene Brosseau, the French middleweight champion, Tom Cauler and Joe Bands, the English fighters.

All in all it looks as if fans would get as good, or better, run for their money from the standpoint of even matching, than the spectators of the championship battle between Jack Dempsey and Billy Miske, Labor day.

Bobbie Wagner and Young Hartley of Yreka have signed for the six-round event Labor day. Two good preliminaries are promised, one between Kid Loomis and Young Gerue, who staged last Saturday's curtain raiser.

MISTAKE IN NAMES CAUSES EMBARRASSMENT

Through misinformation the Herald published a statement, several weeks ago, that David Copperfield was arrested for bootlegging. Mr. Copperfield asks the paper to state that it was his nephew, Edward Copperfield, and not himself who was arrested for introducing liquor into the reservation. As a result of the error David Copperfield says his neighbors are constantly asking him when he got out of jail and it is quite embarrassing.

THE HOUSE OF MERIT

Cocoanuts are the common form of exchange among the natives of the Nicobars. For instance, a box of matches is worth 20 cocoanuts, while for needles the price is one cocoanut each.

Less than a third of the world's population gets what we should call three square meals a day, yet the working capabilities of the so-called underfed continents of Asia and Africa will compare very well with either America or Europe.

It is somewhat extraordinary, but man is the only animal that cannot naturally perceive approaching rain. All other animals show uneasiness when rain is coming. At such times dogs get restless, cats sneeze and wash their ears, frogs croak with a loud, harsh noise, owls screech, peacocks scream, and ducks and geese are unusually noisy. This is said to be due to the relaxation of their nerves by the damp air, which makes them uneasy.

GETS GOWN PURCHASED BEFORE THE WAR

PASADENA, Cal., Aug. 25.—A French gown, purchased in Paris in 1914, before the war, has just been delivered to Mrs. Frank F. Shelden, Kansas City, who was here recently on her honeymoon.

Mrs. Shelden, then Miss Dolmeyer, said she bought the gown in a Paris shop and ordered it sent to Berlin, where she intended visiting. The gown was forwarded a few days before the war storm broke. It reached Liege and reposed for two years at the American consulate. Later it reached Miss Dolmeyer's Berlin hotel and was kept there until the war ended. Finally, after several trips across the Atlantic, it reached its owner.

After purchasing the gown, Miss Dolmeyer went to Berlin as planned, but left immediately on a refugee train for Holland. Later she came to the United States.

The gown, the owner said, is a bit out of style, but made of excellent material.
