DO YOU WANT IT?

In this day of experimenting, when every man is coming forward with a cure for the troubles of the nation. people are apt to grab up the wrong remedy. North Dakota did that very Under the lure of the Non thing. Partisan League the people in that state upset the regular order of things, with the result that chaos igns, bankruptey is knocking at the oor, capital is staying away from there, and the business man and farmer are paying for an experiment that some of them thought would bring about a millenium.

The Non Partisan League is reaching out for control of the northwest and Oregon is included in its pro-The four percent interest bill is one of the balts it is setting to fool the people. Other legislation equally as deceptive is in the making. The time is at hand when the people of this state must stop, study, and ezamine into these things. The fol-News-Review of that city, is worth reading. It is first-hand information and tells a story that the people of Oregon should remember: "Editor News-Review:

"I note with great deal of interest that the Non-partisan League is going to try to carry this state. Last month they borrowed $2,000,000, but after all there are a lot of people that stay with them. They passed a law last year allowing the l. W. W.'s to use the red flag. "The bank was to help the farmer and let them have some cheap money, and when a farmer applies for a loan his title must be clear, and they send man to look the farm over, and his ime and expenses are charged to the termer, and in some cases when the inspector has gone to see the place and everything clear, he, the farmer, could not get the foan, but had to ay for his inspection. It looks like they are trying to make it hard for he antisocialist so he will have to divide up with the I. W. W.'s, There is so much of his kind of stuff.

"They sent a man here from anther state to look after the state brary, and if you remember these iks are to be sent to anybody in e state to read, and in these travling libraries he had books on free eve, etc., teaching that if a woman narried a man and if her children rere not as intelligent as she thought
