

The Bank of England note is not of the same thickness throughout. In places it is thicker, so as to retain a keener impression of the figures and letters of importance.

The weight of the human brain is said to double in the first 9 months of life, and triple before the end of the third year, after which the rate of increase is much slower.

The real Balm of Gilead is the dried juice of a low shrub which grows in Syria. It is very valuable and scarce, for the amount of balm yielded by one shrub never exceeds sixty drops a day.

Should a British peer ever be sentenced to death for some criminal offense, and become liable to the last penalty of the law, he can demand as his right that a silken cord be used instead of the ordinary hempen rope.

In ancient days crows were employed as letter bearers.

Girls marry very young in India, the law permitting a girl to become a bride at 1 year of age. As a matter of fact, a girl who is not wedded at 18 is unlikely to be so, unless she should be fancied by some widower.

CITATION

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Klamath County. In the Matter of the Estate of George C. Mitchell, Deceased.

To J. C. Mitchell, Ben C. Mitchell, Gene Lemmon, J. B. Mitchell, Floda Morgan, Mary Ann Pitney, Ines Flanagan, Myrtle McFadden and A. M. Collier, guardian ad litem of Garrison Claude Mitchell, a Minor. Greeting, in the Name of the State of Oregon.

You and each of you are hereby cited to appear in the Court Room of the above entitled court at the County Court House at Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon, at 2 o'clock p. m. on September 18, 1920, at the September term of this Court, 1920, not less than ten days after the service of this citation upon you, to show cause, if any exist, why this court should not make an order to sell, as prayed for in the petition, filed herein, licensing and empowering Lealie Rogers, Administrator with the will annexed of the said estate, to sell at private sale, upon the terms prescribed by the Court, the following described lands and real estate, to wit:

Lot 4 in Block 84, in Klamath Addition to Klamath Falls, Oregon, according to the duly recorded plat thereof on file in the office of the county clerk for Klamath County, Oregon, together with the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

This citation is issued pursuant to an order of the above entitled Court made and entered in the above entitled estate and matter on the 7th day of August, 1920.

C. R. DeLAP, County Clerk.

Start of the Season

A GAIN right at the very beginning of the Fall, our showings of fashionable wear are complete. Not only in the fullest range of authentic styles, but in the earliest showings of the styles which will lead the mode. Again, we enable our friends to select their fall and winter wear, right at the very beginning of the season, so that they may have the utmost of service, for our prices are placed at fair figures for real value in assured quality and workmanship.

New Suits for Autumn Wear

Your eyes will see the attractiveness of their styling, but it is on the expertness of our buyers that you may feel assured of the faithfulness of their workmanship, the lasting service in each stitch, the permanance of expression in the correctness of cutting and shaping, and the durability in wear of the materials selected for their absolute purity and perfection. For such completeness of value the prices are remarkably reasonable.

$35.00 to $85.00

New Coats and Wraps for Fall

You will admire the soft fabrics, the clinging youthful lines, the graceful drapings—but you may also know that if we show it, the garment has had to pass the rigid test of honest and careful workmanship in every detail of making and cutting. From each standpoint, whether of style, of material, or of manufacture, each garment has been selected for its individual superiority, giving you a guarantee of utmost value for every dollar of cost.

$17.50 up to $100.00

Brilliancy and Beauty in the New Fall Dresses

Your delight will be great at the exceedingly bright and cheerful harmonies in color, the gaiety in the trimmings and the youthful styling of the new dresses. There is a sweet becomingness to the narrow, straight, slim lines of the tailored types of costumes which will vie in favor with the dainty femininity of the freer fitted semi-dress models, whose smart simplicity renders them as desirable for day wear, as their varied elegance recommends them for theater or dinner wear. And the price markings make this start of the season a memorable one.

HERALD FORCE IS

GETTING BACK TO NORMAL Mrs. G. L. Drummond, linotype operator for the Herald, called at the office yesterday after a two weeks' illness, during which time the Herald was hard put to find anyone to take her place.

George Connors, another member of the Herald force, returned this afternoon from a three weeks' vacation visit at Eureka, California. George was accompanied by his father, W. W. Connors. The force is gradually getting back to normal with the return of its absentees.
