Laid by for the winter

Housewives of Early New York Dissatisfied With Less Than a Six-Month Supply.

The eleventh hour, or, rather, six o'clock rush to the delicatessen store that marks the approach of dinner in these days of frenzied housewifery would have seemed a strange madcap phenomenon to the good housewives of the New York.

According to the memory of one small boy of seventy-five years ago the thirty Dutch folk who lived along the west side of what is now downtown New York laid in stores in October and November to last until April or May.

A barrel of four, two or three of apples and potatoes added the vegetable content to the menu. Other supplies to last variety were laid by in lesser quantities.

Creed for every American

Undeniable "Good Thing" to Which All Citizens Should Subscribe and Pass Along.

Nearly every reader is familiar with the expression, "It's a good thing, pass it along." The other day attention was attracted by a "good thing" which is here passed along.

I believe in the United States of America.

My opportunity and hope depend upon her future.

I believe that her stability and progress rest upon the industry and thrift of her people.

Therefore, I will work hard and live simply.

I will spend less than I earn.

I will use my earnings with care.

I will save conscientiously.

I will invest thoughtfully.

To increase the financial strength of my country and myself, I will buy government securities.

I will hold above barter the obligations my country thus incurs.

I will do these things to insure the greatness of America's future.

King Alfonso cut short his recent visit to England in order to return to Spain to be with his mother on her birthday.

Throughout his life he has never failed to spend that day with her.

HAVE YOU INSURED YOUR HAY?

Fires have caused more property losses than have been caused by all the wars, storms, floods and other agencies of destruction of historical record. Nothing is immune from destruction by fire, even though fireproof materials are above, below, or all around it. Think how easy it is to lose your hay crop through fire, for hay is one of the most combustible properties you can think of.

Fire insurance would be your only protection against financial loss if your hay crop should be destroyed by fire. We offer you this protection through the most reliable insurance company in existence. See me, Jas. Driscoll, Room 4, Loomis Building.

AT THE THEATERS

A clean, bright, entertaining photoplay, strong in human interest, shows at the Liberty Theatre tomorrow. It is "Tin Pan Alley"—a snappy title for a beautiful picturization of the spirit of the home and what it means in human lives. The story on which the picture is founded is by William C. Lengel, and recently made a big hit in one of the magazines. It tells of the struggle of a youth to make a success musically, of how he finds the true source of inspiration in a place most unexpected—to him—and thus learns the difference between the sham and the real in life.

The picture lives up to the usual excellence of William Fox productions. The stars, Albert Ray and Elinor Fair, do excellent work supported by a good cast.

are made for the benefit of the fans in giving them the best of static entertainment.
