AT THE THEATERS

Where a man uses his brains to arrive at a conclusion, a woman uses her intuition. Instinctively she knows or feels that which a man reaches only through logical reasoning. But the mystery of "One Hour Before Dawn," in which H. B. Warner will be starred at the Liberty Theatre next Sunday, will baffle a man's brain and defy a woman's intuition.

"One Hour Before Dawn" is far from being the usual type of murder mystery, for herein hypnotism plays a prominent part. The question of whether or not H. B. Warner, as the hero, committed the murder while under a hypnotic spell, keeps the audience guessing at every turn.
