DOROTHY GISH in
"MARY ELLEN COMES TO TOWN"

She was tired of being the only LIVE ONE in a village of sleep walkers. Tired of watching the train whiz by with other folks going somewhere to do something So MARY ELLEN COMES TO TOWN—to NEW YORK—and tried her arts on the GREAT WHITE WAY

PREACHER ON LONG CROSS COUNTRY HIKE

Tramping 4,000 or more miles, the Reverend Mr. Burt, of Patterson, New Jersey, a Presbyterian minister, with a boy scout about 16 years of age, arrived in this city the latter part of last week, and after remaining here until Sunday morning, departed for San Francisco and other California points intent upon continuing their journey in the same way they reached here—afoot.

Mr. Burt and his boy scout friend, whose name unfortunately was not learned, left New Jersey not more than four months ago, and have visited every park of importance on their route. Crater lake was the last place of scenic interest they visited. They came here chiefly to visit with friends of the Reverend and Mrs. J. W. Stubblefield, whom they met in Cheyenne, Wyoming, and who formerly resided here. Incidentally, the Stubblefields are finding life in Cheyenne very pleasant.

Mr. Burt is making a particular study of Indian life, lumber camp life, and of National parks, and will continue his tramp from southern California through the southern tier of states, and then north to his home at Patterson. It might be stretching the truth slightly to say that they walked all of the way, as they received an occasional lift, sometimes through necessity, and sometimes through good-fellowship, but the journey has been a tramp in the real sense of the word and has been replete with interest.

DIVORCE SUIT

A divorce suit has been filed in the circuit court by Wilma F. McCullom against Ernest McCullom.

In Algiers no fewer than three Sabbaths are observed during the week—on Friday that of the Mohammedans, on Saturday that of the Jews, and on Sunday that of the Christians.

Every year Greater London uses a quantity of water sufficient to flood a canal 100 feet wide and 900 miles long, to a depth of 20 feet.

ials of life, no more foreign-made clothes or luxury foods, no more expensive pleasure trips abroad, no more costly presents.

The promoters, among whom are former Finance Minister Count Roedern; the economic expert, Walter Rathenau; and a dozen well-known professors and social workers, emphasize that they are not ascetics nor prohibitionists but that they make a plain appeal to the common sense of the people to restrict their general expenditure for the sake of the Fatherland.

It is claimed for the movement that it is entirely non-partisan and that it has the official endorsement of the government.

HUGE LOSS OF LIFE IN QUAKE

ROME, Sept. 5.—Scores of lives, believed to have been lost in the district north of Florence which was severely shaken by earthquakes yesterday morning. As reports from the stricken district arrive, the extent of the disaster seems to be growing.

BUY PERFUME WHILE PEOPLE ARE STARVING

BERLIN, July 26. (By Mail).—Since the raising of the stockade, Germany has imported 10,000,000,000 marks' worth of silks, perfumes, chocolates, oranges, cigarettes and other luxuries from abroad, and the poor are clamoring for oatmeal and condensed milk, according to German advocates of "the simple life."

A new movement known as the League for the Regeneration of Germany, which preaches plain living and high thinking, a return to old-time simplicity, coupled with a revival of intellectuality as opposed to the crass materialism of the present day, has been started here. It deprecates the daily issuance of 26,000,000 marks in paper currency by the government.

An appeal is made to the people to confine themselves to the essential

LABOR SPEAKER SCORES CITY'S 'DEATH TRAPS'

The trophy awarded for the best parade display was won by the entry of Messrs. J. H. Garrett & Son. There were several beautiful floats entered, and the judges, C. H. Underwood and Jim Bratton, had considerable difficulty. Mr. Garrett's entry consisted of a huge Mack truck loaded to its capacity with logs, on top of which were perched several pretty children.

Mr. Underwood stated today: "We decided that inasmuch as the Garrett entry was typical of the industry upon which the prosperity of Klamath county is based, together with the very evident pains and labor connected with the preparation of the float, that Mr. Garrett is entitled to the trophy."

The parade order was as follows: Guests and speakers. Timberworkers' Brass Band, 25 pieces, of Weed, California. Weed Local No. 114, I. T. U. Central Labor Council. Carpenters' Local No. 190. Barbers' Local No. 841. Retail Clerks' Local No. 459. Painters' Local No. 1193. Cullinary Alliance No. 424. Laundry Workers' Local No. 220. Mechanists' Local No. 1473. Teamsters', Chauffeurs' Local No. 300. Timberworkers' Union No. 188. Fraternal, Commercial and Miscellaneous Floats. Fire Department.

Leading the marching columns were the marshalls of the day, Captain J. P. Lee and Fred Plowman, followed by an attractive little Shetland pony outfit, driven by the small children of a member of the carpenters' union.

The Weed band of 25 pieces provided the music. The Barbers' Union paraded in their white coats, but mercifully left their razors behind. The Cullinary Alliance attended in force, its members wearing white service coats, with crape bandanas on the left arm. The lady members of this Union were in a large sightseeing bus. Timberworkers Union No. 188, carried several banners, which were freely commented upon, and were, later, mentioned by the speakers. Amongst the signs carried were "We want clean beds to sleep in." "We want bathhouses in camps." Others read: "We want free employment offices—no graft" and "We want no more blanket stiffs."

A feature of the parade was the absolute silence, excepting for the roll of drums, observed by the paraders while passing the scene of the fatal fire. All music ceased while the parade passed the vicinity of the Opera house. On the counter-march, all heads were bared and the paraders stood in silence for five minutes, during Mr. Trimble's prayer.

The tug-of-war, the feature of the sports programme, was won by the Timberworkers' Union of Klamath Falls, who disposed of the aspirations of the Carpenters' Union in short order, the pull lasting only two minutes.

The winning team consisted of the following husky lumber pilers, who are jubilantly celebrating their victory: Captain, Teddy Shreder; W. Holmberg, Gust. Carlson, M. Martinson, Charles Johnson, Ole Lund and L. Westby.

Carpenters' line-up: Howard, (Capt.) Anderson, Gilmore, Vollmer, Metzger, Ricketts and Turner.

The most bitterly contested event of the day was an added tug of war for a half dozen suits of Carhart's Union made overalls, the gift of Fred Houston of the K. K. K. store. This contest, between the Klamath Falls and Weed Timberworkers, went the full twelve minutes scheduled, after which the judges awarded the prize to the Weed boys, on ground gained.
