

FIRES IN SUGAR PLANTATIONS
HONOLULU, T. H., Sept. 14.—Sugar plantation managers on the island of Oahu, all of which is included in Honolulu county, recently have reported several incendiary fires in their cane fields. Considerable cane is said to have been damaged. Two incendiary fires occurred in one day recently at Ewa plantation, one of which burned 20 acres of cane.

POLITICAL CLUB IS SHATTERED

PEKING, Aug. 15. (By Mail).—At the moment when a military fiasco appears to have broken the power of the "Anfu Club," for several years the dominant element in Chinese politics, there is evident a spirit of tolerance toward Marshal Tuan Chi-jui, the "bell wether" of the organization and to whitewash his activities in the recent events, even among his political opponents.

The aged field marshal, former premier, generalissimo of the army and leader of the now defeated Anfu faction—he is somewhere about 64—boasts that he never reads the newspapers and those who seek to minimize his culpability assert that he was led into error through a long series of misrepresentations by the chiefs among his adherents, and especially by the ambitious General Heu Shu-chen, widely known as "Little Hsu." One of the Tuan's virtues is said to be that he never has been known to leave any of his constituents in the lurch, no matter what their faults might be and this fidelity has at times cost him dear. The Peking Leader, organ of the Chihli or opposition party, editorialized Tuan as "one of the most spectacular careers of modern China" from which "there is much for the present and future leaders to learn * * * much for them to emulate and much to be warned by."

The editorial continues: "He has repeatedly proved himself the champion of the republican idea in the concrete. His opposition to Yuan Shih-kai's monarchical scheme was a telling factor in the preservation of a republican form of government and his championship of the republic at the time of Chang Hsun's attempted restoration of the Ching dynasty needs no elaboration.

"He has realized his mistake and has asked the president to allow him to resign. Retiring to private life at this juncture he still carries with him the respect of the president, of his opponents who have demanded no retributive punishment for him and of a great number of the people."

ROADS ROADS ROADS ROADS

Some of Klamath county's difficulties can be definitely settled, but the road problem, like the poor, is always with us. An county commissioner I would favor a policy such as this: MORE MONEY FOR ROADS (less for Court Houses).

Divide the county into from 20 to 30 districts, for supervisory purposes. Appoint in each district a WORKING road supervisor who would give practically all his time to road duties, this corps of men to care for road maintenance, such as dragging, ditching, removing rocks and other obstructions, repairing culverts, and curing road defects before they become serious. This corps of men to work directly under a COMPETENT COUNTY ROAD SUPERINTENDENT.

Permanent road work, bridges and market roads to be directly under the county road superintendent.

But with any sort of a road organization there must be added a genuine interest in roads, on the part of the people of the county—a ROAD SPIRIT that will do, and dare, and stand present sacrifice, in order that the highways of Klamath will serve the ever-increasing needs of the county.

FRED PETERSON,
Republican Candidate for County Commissioner.

Among the late Empress Eugenie's numerous claims to fame not the least interesting was her invention of the crinoline skirt, which she is said to have been the first to devise and wear, a few months before the birth of the Prince Imperial.
