

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. F. F. Henley was in town yesterday attending to business.

Harry Telford was in the city from his ranch on the Merrill road this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ingerson left on a vacation trip to San Francisco this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ulrich and family, accompanied by Mr. Ulrich's father, Otto Ulrich, left for Medford this afternoon. Mr. Ulrich, senior, is leaving for his home in the east after a short stay in Medford with his daughter, Mrs. Lindley.

Miss Carol Johnson of Seattle and Portland, who has been spending two months with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Harris, has decided to remain in Klamath Falls and has taken a position in the Andross-Glover Style shop. She is stopping at the White Pelican hotel.

Edwin Cox left this morning for Eugene after having spent a week with old friends here. Mr. Cox attended public and high school in this city.

George Humphrey left this morning for Fort Klamath, where he will attend to matters connected with his office as sheriff of this county.

Bruce Stewart and family are county visitors from Lake City, California. They are stopping at the White Pelican hotel today.

Leon E. Rennels of Portland arrived last night from that city and is registered at the White Pelican hotel.

William Marx, attorney from Merrill, Oregon, was a county seat visitor yesterday on matters of legal business.

M. L. Spiker of Portland is registered at the White Pelican hotel today.

Wellington Gregg, a banker from San Francisco, who has been spending several weeks at Pelican Bay Lodge with a party of friends, will return from the lodge today, and the party will leave for San Francisco tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Richardson arrived yesterday from Grants Pass, and are stopping at the White Pelican hotel.

D. M. Smith, S. J. Chaney, and E. M. Chilcote spent part of yesterday duck hunting on the Upper Lake and came down late yesterday afternoon with plenty of ducks, but not quite the limit. Mr. Chilcote reports that the day was too perfect for duck hunting.

William McNealley and Carlyle Yaden left this morning for a day's duck shooting. They expect to be back late this evening.

Mrs. Sarah Furber arrived on last night's train from her home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Furber will spend two weeks with her son, J. J. Furber, whom she has not seen for fifteen years.

Mrs. H. D. Telford left with her son, Wilbur, in a car this morning for Corvallis, where Wilbur will enter on his senior year at the Oregon Agricultural College.

Miss Ruth Patten left for Corvallis this morning, where she will attend school for the coming year. Miss Patten was one of the teachers in the Riverside school last year.

Vernon McClellan left for Rogue River this afternoon where he will look over the fruit crop.

Eldon Cofer left on the train this morning for Corvallis, where he will continue his engineering course at the agricultural college.

Miss Agnes D. Russell, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hauger for the past five weeks, left on the train this morning for her home in Tacoma.

False teeth of ivory, on plates of the same material, and held in place by gold wires, were in use in the year 1000 B. C.

Candied violets are a favorite confection in some parts of France.

WE ARE EXCLUSIVE LA VOGUE REPRESENTATIVES IN KLAMATH FALLS

GOLDEN RULE
VANNICE BROTHERS

A COMPLETE LINE OF READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHING FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Coats LaVogue Suits
FEATURING
A Wide Variety of the Season's Foremost Fashions

Each of the season's smartest style ideas is to be seen in our splendid showing of La Vogue coats—ranging from the tailored types to richly fur-trimmed models of handsome fabrics, or having the deep over-cape.

They are striking coats with the latest Fashion motifs cleverly interpreted for the American woman's good taste.

The Voguish wrappy coat—the wide collars and capes and the warm, rich materials—form a beautiful combination of smart, stylish attractiveness.

The suits also are extremely modish in design—They appeal to the eye—as well as to one's good sense in practical, serviceable styles. All styles are youthful and snappy in design—on long and slender lines. All are beautifully tailored and exquisitely finished. Come in and try them on—and make your selection.
