TRAINING CASSES IN CANNING WORK

Miss Fannie Virgil, domestic science and art teacher for the public schools, is busy training her classes as well as Merrill classes in canning for competitive contests at the Klamath county fair September 24-25. All teams will compete in speed, skill, neatness, appearance of the team, and in the quality of the finished product. The winning team of three will be taken to the Oregon state fair at Salem by Miss Virgil. The seventh grade girls, aged from 10 to 13 years, presented a fine appearance yesterday as they worked with their beans, peaches, and tomatoes in the kitchen back of the Central school building. The skill and neatness with which they went about their work could not be surpassed by fifty years' experience, it is wagged by one who saw the little ladies working.
