

The Point Makes the Pen

The Tempoint Pen has the point that won't weaken in the strongest hand or strongest ink—

Due to a special hardening process which also gives the gold pen a steel-like hardness and flexibility.

Writes at first touch. The famous Wahl Comb Feed automatically regulates flow of ink for any speed.

Air-tight chamber prevents "sweating" and keeps pen moist for instant writing.

TEMPPOINT
The Perfect Pointed Pen

A fitting writing mate to the Eversharp Pencil, made by the same concern. Made in both Self Filling and Screw Joint styles. Prices, $2.50 and up.

Come and try it. Learn how different and better a pen can be.

COURT SESSION STARTS MONDAY

A jury session of the circuit court opens Monday. While seven or eight cases are set down for trial, it is understood that compromises out of court will cut the number considerably. The first case for trial is the action of J. D. Edler against David P. McAuliffe.

The grand jury will also begin its session Monday. In view of the thorough sifting that has been given the Houston hotel fire, without the discovery of any evidence tending to show criminality, it is not believed likely the grand jury will make any further inquiry.

Among the criminal matters for investigation is the case of William Ingersoll who was held over by the justice court for the alleged murder of Henry Stochler at Dairy.

AT THE THEATERS

Uptown with work over, and a dollar in her purse, she saw thousands of men. Pouch-faced ones, slender ones, swagger men; eyes that haunted her, ignored her, invited her and appraised.

She had spent too much for lunch (forty cents). Last Sunday she found a runt in her only silk stockings. A boy friend hadn't asked for her photograph. And she didn't like the new boss.

Troubles enough for anyone and they never let up.

A man was following her. She dodged into a lobby to let him pass. She hated men.

She drifted with the crowd to a theater and spent fifty cents for a seat. Blossoms about her. Lights kissed with rose petals. Music now. Love notes came from reed and strings and wood, leading to the hypnotic flow of symphony in the orchestra pit.

Then a man appeared, unlike any she had ever seen on Klamath Falls' streets.

HARD TO GET GOOD FABRICS THESE DAYS

but the cloths we show are the products of the best mills and are exclusive with us. Come in and see them. You'll be impressed with their quiet good taste and the character of our tailoring fully equals that of the fabrics as every good dresser knows.

Flowered robe, young, handsome. A man who could love without staining. Then another man. Then a girl.

She saw them move. Her little worries drifted away on a tide of enchantment.

Tears came as tears will come to women, who know that they but rest and refresh when not born of our own woes.

The sigh of moonlight in a lover's room. Then one final beating of a temple bell.

She had seen "Broken Blossoms" in the Liberty theater. Her heart was aglow with understanding. And because she loved all good men, she went out upon the crowded streets—and she couldn't see a man on Main street.

Our County Fair

Will be held August 24th and 25th. Let's all get together and pull for a good one this year. In time to come Klamath County must depend on its crops and stock for our principal source of income, and by getting behind the men who have this fair in charge we encourage them to greater effort, and our stockmen and farmers ought to be given to understand that they are not alone in their effort to raise better stock, and improve the condition of our farming community. So we say again let us encourage this Fair by our presence, and financial support.

SALE OF TIMBER KLAMATH INDIAN RESERVATION LITTLE SPRAGUE UNIT

Sealed bids in duplicate, marked outside "Bid Little Sprague Unit," and addressed to the "Superintendent, Klamath Indian School, Klamath Agency, Oregon," will be received until 2:00 o'clock P. M., Pacific time, Wednesday, October 27, 1920, timber on about 3,600 acres on for the purchase of the merchantable Sprague River in townships 34 and 35 South, Range 8 East, Willamette Meridian. This unit is estimated at 40,000,000 feet B. M., mostly western yellow pine of which about 5,000,000 feet is on about 480 acres of approved allotments, and as to which separate approved contracts with the Indian owners may probably be made. No bid will be accepted for less than $4.00 for yellow and sugar pine and incense cedar, and $1.60 for other species during the period of the contract ending March 31, 1924. Prices subsequent to that date will be fixed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for three-year periods. Each bid must state the rate per M that will be paid for each kind of timber during the first contract period ending March 31, 1924, and must be accompanied by a certified check on a solvent National Bank drawn in favor of the Superintendent of the Klamath Indian School in the amount of $10,000.00. The deposit will be returned to unsuccessful bidders, but retained as liquidated damages if the successful bidder shall fail to execute contract and furnish satisfactory bond for $15,000.00 within 60 days from the acceptance of his bid. The right is reserved to waive technical defects and to reject any or all bids. For copies of contract, regulations, fuller description of the area, and other information, apply to the Superintendent of the Klamath Indian School, Klamath Agency, Oregon Washington, D. C., August 16, 1920.
