REAL ROOSEVELT ABHORRED WILSON AND HIS WORKS

Yet Democratic Candidate for Vice Presidency Standers Great Leader's Memory.

MAKING FUTILE ATTEMPT TO WIN ON OLD ISSUES

Fifth Cousin Removed Roosevelt Not Able to Convince Followers of T. R. by Specious Arguments.

By SCOTT C. BONE.

Touring the country as a candidate for Vice President, Franklin D. Roosevelt is vainly endeavoring to invoke the progressive spirit of 1912 in support of Wilsonism and the election of the Democratic ticket in November. What would the real Roosevelt—Theodore Roosevelt—the immortal T. R.—say to his followers were he alive today?

Gone, he left burning words which tell all too plainly what his attitude would be at this time.

He abhorred Wilsonism, just as he abhorred Danielism, with both of which Franklin D. Roosevelt has been identified as an under Secretary.

Condemned Wilsonism.

Theodore Roosevelt condemned Wilsonism and the whole Wilson administration in unsparring terms.

Read anew what he said at Cooper Union on November 8, 1916:

"I have been assailed because I have criticized Mr. Wilson. I have not said one thing of him that was not absolutely accurate and truthful.

"I have not said one thing of him which I did not deem it necessary to say because of the vital interests of this republic.

"I have criticized him because I believe he has dragged in the dust what was most sacred in our past and has jeopardized the most vital hopes of our future.

"I criticize him now because he has adroitly and cleverly with sinister ability appealed to all that is weakest and most unworthy in the American character; and also because he has adroitly and cleverly with sinister ability sought to mislead many men and women who are neither weak nor unworthy, but who have been misled by a shadow dance of words.

"He has made our statesmanship a thing of empty eloquence.

"He has covered his fear of standing for the right behind a veil of rhetorical phrases.

"He has wrapped the true heart of the nation in a spangled shroud of rhetoric.

"He has kept the eyes of the people dazzled so that they know not what is real and what is false. So that they turn, bewildered, unable to discern the difference between the glitter that veneers evil and the stark realities of courage and honesty, of truth and strength.

"In the face of the world he has covered this nation's face with shame as with a garment."

So much for Theodore Roosevelt's opinion of Wilson and Wilsonism in support of which Franklin D. Roosevelt, life-long Democrat, would now invoke the progressive spirit of 1912!

Abhorred Danielism.

And what did Theodore Roosevelt think of Daniels' administration of the Navy Department of which the Democrat, Franklin D. Roosevelt, has been a more or less conspicuous factor and part?

In a speech on "Americanism and National Defense" at Chicago, October 26, 1910, Theodore Roosevelt said:

"More harm has been done to the navy by the politicians in power during the last three years than in the preceding thirty. Whatever good has been accomplished in the navy during the last three years has been done by naval officers, who, in most cases, have been snubbed and punished for their proposals as long as it was safe to do so; whereas Mr. Daniels now turns and claims credit for what was thus forced upon him.

"In short, throughout President Wilson's term there has been neglect or positive maladministration in connection with departmental organization in navy yards, aeronautics, mines and torpedoes, and in all other matters affecting the efficiency of the fleet and the enthusiasm of its officers and men.

The activity and energy of the Navy Department under President Wilson has been primarily concentrated upon schemes aimed at vote-getting or advertising."

This, then, is what Theodore Roosevelt thought of the administration of the Department from which Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democrat and exponent of Wilsonism, vainly would reach the Vice Presidency and have progressives of 1912, followers of the real Roosevelt, help to keep the Democratic party in power and make Wilsonism endure!

It is inconceivable that any true follower of Theodore Roosevelt will hearken to such a preposterous appeal.

PERSONAL MENTION

Tom Deltzell and Kenneth Perry left on the stage yesterday for Ashland, from where they will go to Corvallis and enter the Oregon Agricultural college.

A. S. Bennett has returned from the huckleberry patch where he has been for several weeks.

R. L. Rightmiler is a county seat visitor from Tule Lake today.

Miss Geraldine Watt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Watt, left this morning for Palo Alto, where she will enter on her freshman year at the University of Leland Stanford, Jr.

Miss Dorothy Shive left this morning for San Francisco, where she will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Houston left this morning for a week's business trip to Summer Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers and family, with their guest, Miss Jean R. Norvell, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shallock spent a pleasant week-end at Crater Lake. Miss Norvell left this morning for her home in Los Angeles, after having spent her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Trefen and Mr. and Mrs. J. Bailey spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Thrasher and family. The party returned to their homes in Macdoel, California, this morning.

Don J. Zumwalt, who has been confined to his home for the past week with a broken collar bone, was down town this morning for a half hour attending to pressing business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Loosley of Fort Klamath are in town today on business.

Will Baldwin and C. H. Underwood left for the Lake of the Woods Saturday, where they were to join Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Underwood, who have been camping there for the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Nelson left yesterday in their car for Corvallis where they will take special courses in the Oregon Agricultural College.

Miss Marjorie Grise is in town today from the Grise mill near Bonanza.

Mrs. Etta Kilgore is here from her home in Bonanza for a brief visit with her daughter, Miss Beas Kilgore.

R. H. Cooke, of the Underwood Pharmacy, left for a week's deer hunt this morning and he promises to return with a big buck.

Miss Mabel Christy and Miss Edna P. Ganin left Saturday for Berkeley, where they will enter on their senior year at the University of California. They were accompanied by Miss Ganin's father, Joseph Ganin, who will visit in Oakland and San Francisco for a few days.

F. B. English and J. C. Thompson, of the California-Oregon Power company, went duck hunting over Sunday and report a pretty fair return for their trouble.

T. N. Cunningham and Charles Gray were county seat visitors over the week-end from their ranches in Pine Grove.

William Griffith was in town from his ranch in Poe Valley yesterday. Ross Sutton was in town Saturday from his ranch to look after Fair business.

C. H. Walton Jr. is in town this week from Chiloquin.

TOURISTS IMPRESSED BY BIG VEGETABLES

Two auto loads of persons interested in tule land development formed an excursion party to the C. E. Burton ranch below Keno yesterday. The tour was under direction of L. Jacobs. A supply of products produced on reclaimed tule land was brought back by the tourists, who were greatly impressed by potatoes as large as the biggest coffee cup, boots six inches in diameter and other soil products in proportion. Sugar corn, oats, wheat and pumpkins formed part of the display showing the productiveness of land in this district.
