

LIQUOR DEALERS ASK FOR FUNDS TO AID CANDIDATE COX AS A PRONOUNCED "WET"

(Verbatim copy of letter presented to Senator Investigating Committee at Chicago, by Chairman Will H. Hays of Republican National Committee.)

Office of Cox President
648 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

July 22, 1920.

Cabain Bros.,

Dear Sir and Brother:

The organized liquor trade of New Jersey has set out to do its part toward the election of James M. Cox as the next President of the United States and it becomes my duty to call upon you to help. More than that we are going to fight as we never fought before to keep the hirelings of the Anti-Saloon League out of office; to elect Congressmen in the twelve Congressional districts of the State who will vote to amend the Volstead Act so as to permit the sale of light wine and beer; to elect Assemblymen and State Senators who will keep New Jersey from ratifying the Eighteenth Amendment and prevent the passage of any law concurring in the Volstead Act in its present form.

The nomination of Governor Cox of Ohio for the presidency by the Democrats is a big victory for our interests and it can be attributed to a great degree to the activity of our trade organizations here in New Jersey and throughout the nation. Governor Cox is a pronounced "wet" and he can be relied upon to approve an amendment to the Volstead Act as suggested above. It is now up to our trade organizations to stand unitedly behind the ticket of Cox and Roosevelt and roll up such a majority as will show convincingly that the public well is in our favor. Are you going to help? Of course you are.

This is going to be the greatest political fight in the history of the United States. Your liberty and mine has been taken from us. Our business has been unjustly confiscated. The rights of the people have been seized and they are lined up with us in the mighty struggle that is soon to be decided by the battle of the ballot.

The recent decision of the United States Supreme Court has thrown the question of Prohibition squarely into politics. It is the vital issue in the Campaign that is now under way. The prohibitionists tried to keep the question out of the campaign. They feared the vote of an outraged and indignant public. It is up to us—members of the organized liquor trade—to force the fight. That is just what we are doing.

We have issued the challenge. The Anti-Saloon League is forced to fight. It has made an appeal for a $30,000 fund to elect dry Congressmen who will uphold the Volstead Act and dry candidates to the State Senate and Assembly to force ratification of the Eighteenth Amendment on New Jersey. There is no question about the Anti-Saloon League's ability to raise the amount asked. How much can we raise?

We must have money at once to carry on the work that we have planned. Do not think for a moment that there is plenty of time to give between now and election. The fall will be too late. Money must be had immediately if we are to maintain our headquarters and continue the propaganda that is necessary in the drive to win public opinion. This is the second appeal that I have sent you. The first you evidently overlooked. I would not bother you now if it were not for the fact that your own interests hang in the balance just as much as mine. Let me beg of you to remain loyal to the cause to the finish. Make this your last contribution if you will but give—give something.

Your record on the roster of your local associations and also on that of the State League showed that you have been loyal and regular in the past. Do keep that record unsullied to the very end. I have always had your co-operation in the past please let me have it now for the Federation is to put up a bigger fight than it ever made before.

So that we may know at once just what our resources are, may we not ask you to promptly return the inclosed card filled out with your remittance.

Jump in and help us fight. Give as much as you can afford. This is not merely a battle to save your business but one to preserve something more sacred namely, your personal liberty. Yours fraternally,

Geo. T. Canell
PRESIDENT.

Nominee's Former Pastor Still Boosting Man Who Will Be Leader and Not Dictator.

FINDS IN SENATOR NO TRACE OF RADICALISM

Declares Justice, Kindliness and Mercy
Stand Out as Foremost Characteristics of Republican Candidate.

Included among the Minnesota Republicans working faithfully and industriously in behalf of Senator Harding, is Rev. D. B. Martin, of Winnebago, Minn., formerly pastor of the Marion, Ohio, Baptist Church and Senator Harding's pastor. The other day Rev. Martin was asked just why he is so enthusiastic about Senator Harding, and this is what he said:

"It is a peculiar pleasure for me to continue the work which I began twenty-five years ago. It was my privilege to stand on the side lines and boost for Senator Harding when he received his first nomination for public office. When he was a candidate for the senate I was visiting in Ohio and had the pleasure of boosting for him. It is, therefore, a peculiar pleasure to join with this bunch of Minnesota boosters in seeking to put Senator Harding over, in the greatest gift within the power of the people. Being a clergyman, I have been constantly asked by my friends at the college commencement in Michigan, in Chicago and in Minnesota why I am such a persistent booster for Mr. Harding, and I have been asked to state in this presence my reasons for doing so. These are three:

"The first pertains to certain elements of his character. I will give you these as I received them while I was pastor of the Baptist Church in this city, of which Mr. Harding is a member. I asked him and a group of other men to make some Sunday evening addresses. I do not remember much that Senator Harding said at that time, but I do remember very distinctly the words with which he closed his address and which have stood all these years as outstanding elements of his character to me. He closed the address by a quotation from the Prophets, in which he said, 'And what doth the Lord thy God require of thee but to do justly and love mercy and walk humbly with thy God.' Justice, mercy, kindness and humility have in all these years stood as foremost characteristics of Mr. Harding's life—characteristics which are always attractive and make a man's life worth while.

"The second reason is because I believe that there is focused in him the best traditions, ideals and purposes of the great Republican party and so peculiarly fit him to be their leader in this great crisis of the nation's life. I use the word 'leader' advisedly, for it is leadership that we are needing and not arbitrary, dictatorial, autocratic rule. We have had enough of that. If a boss is desired there would be no need for making any change, for the boss that we have is the bossiest.

"The third reason is because I find in him no trace of radicalism. To me radicalism is the greatest danger that we have to face. Our interests are too diverse to admit of anything of that character. We have our agricultural group with its interests. We have our financial interests. We have that other great group known as the public, that has always been made the 'goat' with its interests. All of these are of vital interest to the common weal and I believe that Senator Harding is broad enough and sympathetic enough so that the interests of each will be blended in the common interest of all, and all will be perfectly safe under his leadership."

"READ THAT, MR. COX" AND MR. COX DID READ.

A little incident connected with candidate Cox's recent campaign visit to New York indicates that the Democratic nominee is striving to forget certain indiscreet editorials which appeared in his newspaper, the Dayton News, before the owner of the paper aspired to the Presidency.

As the Democratic nominee was leaving the Hotel Commodore after luncheon a commercial traveler forced his way through the throng of curious spectators and thrust into Mr. Cox's hand an editorial clipping which proved to be his denunciation of the commercial travelers of the United States. "Read that, Mr. Cox," commanded the traveling man. The Democratic candidate unfolded the frayed column of newspaper matter, glanced at the heading, scanned the first paragraph, flushed scarlet to the ears and crumpling the offensive and offending editorial in his fist mumbled something which none of those near him at the time would repeat and hurried to his waiting automobile.

In 1904 one of Mr. Cox's newspapers denounced the army of traveling salesmen as "unintelligent bores." What would he say now that he desires their votes?—South Bend (Ind.) Tribune.

YEGGS LOOT DURHAM BANK OF THOUSANDS

DURHAM, Cal., Sept. 20.—Battering down the rear door of the building with a crowbar, yeggmen Friday night blew open the outer and inner steel doors of the vault in the Bank of Durham and obtained loot estimated at several thousand dollars by Cashier J. A. Williams.

Nitroglycerine was used. Efforts to blow the cannon ball safe in which the bank's funds were contained failed.

Williams announced the crowbar had been used to break open 100 safe deposit boxes in the vault and that the contents had been heaped in the center of the vault floor and sorted out.

Liberty bonds, jewelry and some coin, which is believed to have been placed in the boxes, were taken.

After taking all the valuables they could obtain in the bank, the men closed the outer door of the vault, according to Cashier Williams so that the view from the street would indicate that all was as it should be in the bank. That the bank had been robbed was not discovered until opened for business next morning.

NO DEFINITE CHOICE FOR CLERK

No definite developments in the way of selecting an independent candidate for county clerk took place at Saturday afternoon's meeting of the Good Government league, but according to members the league will be in a position to make definite announcement of a candidate within a few days.

The meeting was for the purpose of crystallizing and strengthening the position of the league in the present political campaign. The league is backing the incumbent members of the county court who are running for re-election.
