

BOURBON LIMIT TWO MILLIONS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—While the Democratic national finance committee is not limiting the size of its campaign contributions from a single individual a $2,000,000 total would be sufficient for the Democratic national campaign, James W. Gerard, chairman of the committee, testified before the senate campaign investigating committee as the first witness in the reopening of the inquiry.

"Would you take $15,000,000 if you could get it," asked Chairman Kenyon.

"No, that would be too large. So great a sum would shock the public conscience and insure defeat of the party." Gerald added they had raised $128,000 so far, that $2,000,000 would be "enough" and he would be "thankful to get $1,000,000."

RAMS FOR SALE

CORREADALES

Have a few yearlings and Ram Lambs ready for service now.

The attention of sheepmen, who may not know this breed, is called to their many wonderfully good qualities.

They shear a heavy fleece of fine 3/8 wool; ewes about 12 lbs—Rams up to 30 lbs. Hardy and good rustlers—big per cent of twins. Ewes give lots of milk and are the best of mothers—lambs come big and strong and mature quickly—they are the beau ideal dual purpose sheep. You do not have to sacrifice wool for meat and meat for wool, with this breed you get both. Notwithstanding the high prices obtained for wool and lambs the past few years, very few sheepmen have made any money, owing to the very heavy expense. The Correadales will make you more money than any other breed. Unexcelled for crossing with Merino ewes.
