BRANDENBERG'S WHERE THE LADIES SHOP

AT THE THEATERS

The Darktown Follies will appear at the Star theater tonight in their farewell performance, having been induced by the management to stay for one more day than originally booked. They will give an entire change of program, and one that will send you out feeling better. The picture, "The Figurehead," featuring Eugene O'Brien, is said to be, by those who happened to see it in San Francisco or Portland, one of the best pictures of the day. So you will have a chance to enjoy another big evening of enjoyment. The darbies will be shown first and last, with the pictures in between. The last performance goes on at 9:30.

PAVILION DANCE WILL BE HELD AT WHITE PELICAN

Owing to inclement weather the pavilion dance will be held tonight at the White Pelican hotel. There will be the same music and management. The only change is the transfer from the pavilion to the hotel. C. F. Parker, owner of the pavilion, said today that weather permitting tomorrow and Saturday night's dances would be held there as usual and dances would follow until the end of the season on the regular nights weekly.

HENLINE REPURCHASES BOND-LOUCKS STUDIO

A. C. Henline, photographer, who recently sold the Bond Louck studio to R. E. Stinson, has repurchased the stock and now has all negatives and records of the studio. Mr. Stinson will continue to conduct Miller Photo Co's studio with special attention to scenic photography and kodak finishing. Mr. Henline will specialize in portrait photography and conduct his entire business at his original studio, 327 Main street.

Glacier ice from the Alps is delivered to consumers in Lyons and several other cities in Europe. This ice is blasted and mined in the same manner as stone is quarried, and is preferred to other ice because of its hardness and lasting qualities.

WHY HEELS RUN OVER AND SHOES LOSE SHAPE

Many people are compelled to discard expensive shoes after wearing them a short time, because they over-run and lose their shape.

This condition is caused by ankles that turn in or out easily, and a misaligned heel bone, as shown in the above illustration.

The trouble can be corrected at once by keeping the heel bones straight with

HO! FOR THE FAIR!

Klamath County is going to outdo itself Friday and Saturday at the Fair Grounds. She is going to exhibit the products of her fields and farms and gardens, her schools and homes and she is going to tell you that Klamath County has no superior and few equals.

GO AND LEARN AN INTERESTING STORY

One of the big features of the fair is going to be the showing of registered cattle. This is the first time in the history of the county that registered cattle have been shown at a county fair.

BIG RACE PROGRAM

One of the finest race programs ever carried through at a county fair is planned and will show who owns the champion race horse of the county.

Don't forget the date—Friday and Saturday, September 24 and 25, at the county poor farm.
