

DID YOU KNOW
 That the Columbia Grafonola Co. sold more Talking Machines last year than the next two leading Companies?
 That their Grafonolos are very reasonably priced?
 That Eight to Fifteen Dollars a Month will buy any of these fine Models?
 That you owe it to yourself and family to call in our warerooms and at least consider one?
 That the Grafonola gives you All the Music of the World and most of the fun of it?
 If so! Then Hear the clear Columbia Tone, examine the good cabinet work and honest Value and you will decide to have "Music" at once.

Earl Shepherd Co.

Klamath's Only Exclusive Music House

507 Main St. Phone 282-J.

PERSONAL MENTION

Graham Kiel is a visitor in Klamath Falls this week from Marshfield. Mr. Kiel was graduated from Klamath county high school several years ago and lived here until his enlistment in the United States navy.

Miss Kathleen Palmer, who has been employed at the reclamation office, left for North Bend this morning.

F. Olson is in the city from San Francisco having arrived last night.

C. W. Warren, a cattleman from the Bly district, is a city business visitor today.

C. A. Webster of Stockton came in on last night's train and is registered at the White Pelican hotel.

J. N. White is registered at the White Pelican hotel from Wood.

F. W. Stoll of Eugene is a Klamath Falls business visitor today.

Harry Stepper came into town from Chiloquin yesterday and is attending to business here today.

A. R. Campbell, a Klamath county rancher, is in town for a few days on business. He was accompanied by Mrs. Campbell.

Frank F. Davis has gone to California for a few days on business.

N. J. Chapman, justice of the peace, who has been in California on a vacation for the past month, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. V. Parks expects to leave in the morning for Portland.

H. McCharles, who was one of the more seriously injured of the fire victims, is out on the street today for the first time since the fire.

C. K. Brandenburg is in Portland attending to various business affairs.

Captain O. C. Applegate returned Sunday from a three weeks' vacation in the Rogue River valley. While there the captain visited relatives and friends and attended to business connected with a mine in which he has stock. He also climbed Table Rock as well as Roxy Ann, the highest peak in the valley. These journeys of Mr. Applegate each adds its bit to his interesting store of knowledge of the historical points of southern Oregon.

Max Weiss has opened his new store at 1146 Main street, next to the Mondale theatre. Here he will sell the surplus army goods he is going to carry.

Mrs. Ross Finley has gone to Portland where she will visit with her mother for the next two weeks.

L. Davis was here on business from Portland yesterday.

Al C. Graham, who has been ill for over a week, is reported able to sit up today.

H. A. Miller is a Klamath Falls visitor from his home in Bend.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Gaddes and sons are spending a few days in the city from their summer home at Eagle Ridge.

H. K. Little of Portland is in Klamath Falls today on business. He is registered at the White Pelican hotel.

King C. Gillette and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wickland and Howard Allen Wickland are tourist visitors here from Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Smith are stopping at the White Pelican hotel for a few days from their home in San Francisco.

Bernard Hackland, an employe of the First National bank, is out for a two weeks vacation. Mr. Hackland plans on spending part of the time on a deer hunt.

D. W. Ryan is in the county seat today from his home at Fort Klamath.

In the Mirror of Fashion

FASCINATING DRESSES

Selected as the Vicar of Wakefield picked his bride for qualities that would wear well, and you need but to see them to appreciate the beauty of their design.

EXCLUSIVE SUITS

For the woman who seeks something purely personal in type but with that note of individuality which is strikingly unlike anything else. A becoming selection is readily made from so large an assortment.

SUITINGS

Fall Suitings, 56-in. wide, all wool, plain and fancy patterns, mostly dark shades, in all the newest fabrics.

$3.50 to $6.50 a yard

PERCALES

A beautiful assortment of percales has just been unpacked. This cloth is used for the better grade of Shirts, Dresses, Aprons and Children's Garments where better wear and laundering qualities are desired.

WOMAN'S SILK HOSE

Woman's Silk Hose with Lisle reinforced heels and toes and wide garter tops. These are of a pure thread silk.

$1.75 a pair

LISLE HOSE

Woman's first quality Lisle Hose in staple styles. Colors—Black, Brown and White. Sizes 8 1/2 to 10 1/2.....69c a pair

INDIAN BLANKETS

A very complete line of all "Oregon Wool" Indian Blankets and Robes are now on display, showing a great variety of new color combinations and designs.

COTTON AND WOOL BATTINGS

Cotton Battings 72x84 inches will make one full sized heavy weight comforter. A nicer, cleaner, softer and more fluffy Batting than can usually be obtained.

$1.50 and $1.75

Wool Batting—a good grade Commercial wool batting, just the thing for those who desire more warmth and less weight in a comforter. 72x84 inches.

$3.00 and $4.50

BEDDINGS

Special Offerings on Blankets, Comforters, Sheets and Pillow Cases.

Double Sheet Blankets.....	$3.75
Full Sized Wool-Nap Blankets.....	7.50
Full Sized Bed Comforts.....	5.00
Wearwell Sheets 81x90.....	2.50
Piquet Sheets 81x90.....	3.00
Wearwell Pillow Cases 42x36.....	.60

COMFORTER COVERINGS

Silkoline

Many beautiful patterns and colors shown in the new silkolines. An ideal comforter cover. 36 inches wide.....40c yd.

Challis

Will give exceptional wear, beautiful designs, mostly dark colors, 36 inches wide. 40c per yd.

The Woman's Store

H. N. MOE, Proprietor

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Martin, who have been spending the past month touring California in their car, have returned and Mr. Martin will take up his work with the Klamath Pine Lumber company. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were proprietors of the Klamath Variety store before its sale.

Arthur Geary, a well known attorney of Portland, and brother of Ed and Roland Geary, is in town today on business.

Fred Mills left for Portland this morning where he will confer with attorneys in the courthouse case.

Harry Furch was in town this morning from Fort Klamath attending to matters of business.

Word was received here today from Byron Teed, who was called to Baker, Oregon, by the illness of his mother, Mrs. E. B. McKee, that she died last night.

LIBERTY THEATRE

"Always the Best for the Liberty Guest"

H. W. POOLE, Owner ROGER D. TORREY, Musical Director

TONIGHT

Speaking of innocence—she took the palm! And you just can't help loving charming
CONSTANCE BINNEY
 as Penelope Penn in Rachel Crother's play of
"39 EAST"
 and there are plenty of smiles in this dandy story

WEDNESDAY

"CHASING RAINBOWS"
 A story of Death Valley

Why Can't You Have $5.00 In Gold?

Given to Prize Waltz Couple Tonight

Buddies' Jazz Orchestra

MOOSE HALL

Admission $1.00—War Tax 10c

LADIES FREE

Stock Reduction Sale

In order to reduce our stock we are offering for a limited time the popular

INTERNATIONAL TRACTOR

at a greatly reduced price

These tractors are absolutely new and have never been off our floor. If you expect to be in the market for a tractor

BUY IT NOW

You may never have such an opportunity again

J. S. Mills & Son

Corner 6th and Klamath