Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind incombustible ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomainelike poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before breakfast each morning drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the bowels the previous day's poisons and toxins, and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

THE CONVENTIONAL THING
Romantic Youth—"Why do you hesitate, darling? We could easily run away and get married."

His Fancy—"My dear boy, you're too impossible! Why, the only photographs I could leave behind me were taken before I had my hair bobbed!"
—Passing Show.

TOTALLY INDIFFERENT
Gladys—"And when the conductor found you hadn't got the fare in your bag, did he make you get off the train and walk?"
Nora—"Only get off. He didn't seem to care whether I walked or sat down."
—London Tit-Bits.

PAINFUL PROSPECT
The government official of the country district who had charge of that part of the census which deals with farm products, had instructed the old farmer to collect his stock of every description and have them branded.

"I s'pose that's all right," sighed the farmer dolefully, "but, honestly, mister, I b'lieve I'm going to have one hell of a time with them bees."
—American Legion Weekly.

A TALL CORN STORY
Related to the Madison (Kan.) News by Bill Horst: "I've been hoeing weeds in my corn field this week, and it gets so dark down under the corn that I have to use a lantern from 2:30 until quitting time."

RIGHTO!
Music is the language of the soul; jazz is its profanity.—Providence Tribune.

The North Carolina Equal Suffrage association is to hold a meeting at Greensboro, October 7, to reorganize as the North Carolina League of Women Voters.

BUCKHECHT SHOES

Buckhecht Fine Shoes are priced $2.50 to $3.25

As comfortable as No. 439, expresses our ideal of foot ease. A brawny blucher in gunmetal calf, with roomy toe and substantial sole—here are fit, style and service combined. Foot troubles vanish when No. 439 is worn. Not a clumsy shoe—not a homely shoe. It's a sixty-year-old shoe if we count the experience that has perfected it and brought it up to date.
