K. Sugarman Says

As the people of Klamath Valley know it has been the custom of this store to conduct its famous Yom Kippur Sale in the Fall of each year. This year we have been preparing for this event for many months and have let nothing stand in our way in order to make this the greatest merchandise event in the history of Klamath Valley.

I have ordered every single article in the store to be reduced in price for this sale and will put forth every effort to give the people the greatest bargains ever attempted in these parts. We have made our profits for the year and I feel that in order to show my appreciation for the past patronage shown this store, that all the profits during this sale will be given to the public. As I expect a great rush at this sale I do not want you to expect to be served on a silver tray during the sale, but, I will try to live up to the standard of service as this store usually gives.
