TAKES SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Back-ache or have Bladder trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, ease you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and, when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

There are about 12,000 lepers in the Philippines.

The leaves of the yew-trees are poisonous to cattle, but the fruit is quite harmless.

DARES DEATH TO PROTECT LITTLE ORPHANS

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Miss Edith Cold, of west New Brighton, S. I. N. Y., tells in a letter to the Near East relief the story of how she carried the white flag between fighting Turks and Armenians at Hadjin in an effort to save Armenian orphans under her care.

Miss Cold's letter came from Talas, Turkey, in the heart of Mustapha Kemal's country and was brought out by her co-worker Miss Alice Clark, of Evanston, Ill. Another American relief worker at Hadjin mentioned by Miss Cold is Mary Super, of Narberth, Pa.

"The Chetes, (Turkish tribesmen) descended on the compound on the outskirts of Hadjin on April 5," Miss Cold wrote. "The compound where the American flag was flying became the object of a fierce attack."

"After that for 10 weeks we lived as the guests of the Chetes. It was not life, however, but a sojourn in the valley of the shadow of death. We worked ceaselessly at the task of making friends with those encamped about our walls. We served them in every conceivable way, especially Miss Super with medical aid. Two lads died from fright and three were wounded.

"The Turks had their defenses close to the compound between us and the city and occupied the clinic building outside the gate and always fired from it. The compound was always under fire from Hadjin. Hardly a day passed that we did not have callers from among the leaders of the Chetes.

"Twice Mr. Eby and I had permission from them to go to Hadjin. Each time they proclaimed an armistice and we carried the white flag. The first time was at the end of three weeks of siege and the other five weeks later. The first time we simply stated the conditions for surrender as given by the commander, Doghan Bey. The committee in Hadjin faintly refused to consider.

"The second time we sought to bring about a conference between the opposing forces. We went back and forth seven times, stating Doghan Bey's position, bringing the Hadjin reply, etc. Everything seemed favorable except that the place of the conference could not be agreed upon. Doghan Bey insisted that they meet in our Salamluk and the Hadjin committee were equally firm that the place be on our road half way between the defenses. After much parley, Mr. Eby and I finally set out, however, with two Hadjin delegates. Only an hour of the armistice was left. Just as we were climbing over one of the Hadjin defenses a shot was fired and struck between Mr. Eby and me. The Hadjin delegates ran for shelter and Mr. Eby and I proceeded back to the compound alone. Confidence was destroyed. We were unable to locate the source of the shot."

Miss Cold wrote that the Armenians from Hadjin finally captured the compound from the Turks but were driven out of it and most of the 300 inmates of the compound were sent with the Armenians to Hadjin.

"We six Americans and our two Turkish girls took refuge in a dark store room," Miss Cold added. When the Chetes again recovered the compound they looted and set fire to it. Miss Cold and the other Americans were hurried away by the Turks to a mountain retreat where for two nights they were guests in the commander's tent and then were given an escort to Talas.

The fate of the Armenian children in Hadjin was unknown to Miss Cold but she feared that all had perished.

Vote for George Chastain For County Judge

HE STANDS ON THE PLATFORM OF PROGRESS

His election means for Klamath County an administration of county affairs in which money will cease to be paid for attorneys fees and more money will be available for road building; in which no money will be paid to private detective agencies and more money will be spent in school development.

If you as a taxpayer and voter stand for progress, how can you do otherwise than endorse the attitude shown by this extract from Mr. Chastain's signed and published statement:

"I hope to have an administration that will mean progress for the county, good roads, schools and a careful business management of county affairs that will advance the community and reflect credit on me and I do not feel that I can accomplish this if I must always have the clanking chains of three courthouses dragging around with me the carcass of an issue that has been too many long years unburied."

The Argentine school girl, if she attends a school maintained by the government, is required to wear a plain dark blue uniform, consisting of a loose blouse, full skirt and sailor hat. This uniform was decreed by the government in an effort to make the public schools democratic and to remove any distinction between rich and poor that might arise from dress.
