AT THE THEATERS

A new comedy picture starring Robert Warwick, "Jack Straw," will be the attraction at the Star theatre tonight. It was adapted from W. Somerset Maugham's well-known stage play of the same name.

The central figure is Jack Straw, an iceman, in love with Ethel Jennings, daughter of a hard-working clerk. The Jennings suddenly become rich and move to California. Jack Straw follows and shows up there as a waiter. Mrs. Jennings, the mother, has a weakened royalty. To revenge an alleged slight, an acquaintance of hers palms off Jack Straw on her at a big reception as the Archduke of Pomerania. Later, Jack Straw turns the tables by proving to be the real duke.

The leading feminine role is played by the former musical comedy favorite and late entertainer of the A. E. F., Carroll McComas. It is her first motion picture venture. Sylvia Ashton, Charles Ogle, and J. M. Dumont are also in the cast. William De Mille directed the picture. It is a Paramount.

Get the thrill of your life in the big fights in which William Russell, brawny American, rescues a kidnapped girl from city gangsters in "Eastward Ho!" a gripping photoplay of red-blooded American manhood battling for right and love. At the Liberty tonight.

DISCOVERER'S HOLIDAY IS DISCOVERY TO MANY OF US

Closed banks and public buildings today led to the discovery of the fact that it is Discovery day, an unwelcome discovery to many people who had forgotten that this was the anniversary of Columbus' achievement when they ran up against barred bank entrances. Stores and shops transacted business as usual.
