PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Nora Rinker will leave tomorrow morning for San Francisco, where she will spend her two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. E. G. Beauchamp returned last night from Long Beach, California, where she has been visiting her mother for some time.

The Klamath county high school boys who have been scouring the county highways and byways for ducks and geese the past week with which to feed the Ashland visitors, report this morning that their total so far shows 45 ducks and five geese. Pretty good shooting for the boys and better than a lot of sportsmen about town are doing, according to all reports, at hand.

A new and commendable improvement is being made in the back room of the Blue Bird by the way of making it into a Japanese tea garden.
Lattices for the booths are made of cottonwood branches and the walls with their Japanese pen drawings and lights with clever little shades as well as decorative cherry blossoms promise to be very pleasing when finished.

The Sophomore class at the Sacred Heart academy held an interesting debate yesterday afternoon. The question was "Resolved: that capital punishment should be abolished." The affirmative was represented by Loretta Konop, while Walter Han-non argued for the negative side.
Miss Konop won with unanimous vote.

Henry Newnam, who has been spending the past few months at Twin Lakes, California, for his health, is back for a brief stay, for the purpose of giving his attention to business matters. He states that his health is so much better and he is improving so rapidly that he hopes that the next time he comes back he will be able to remain permanently, news that his many friends will be glad to hear.

Mrs. M. Martin is spending several days in this city from her home at Fort Klamath.

Joe Mathews and G. Clemmens spent yesterday in Klamath Falls from Dorris, California.

Bert Withrow and Joe Brett, who have been absent for several days helping to close the deer season in northern California, returned yesterday empty handed. Bert has given up all hope of laying in his winter supply of meat by the skill of his own trigger finger and is looking around for some hunter who will guarantee a sure kill.

Miss Mildred Lenz, who has been in Los Angeles and Portland for the past year, is here for a short vacation with friends and relatives.

Mrs. E. E. Michaels left this morning for Red Bluff, California, where she will visit for a week with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Knox, who have been visiting their son, George Knox, at Merrill, left here today for their home in Seattle.

Thelma Jones was a passenger on the outgoing train today, bound for Redding, after a stay of three weeks here.

W. K. Brown is spending the weekend in town from Fort Klamath.
C. B. Brady, of Dunsmuir, Califor-

Notice is hereby given that funds are now available in the city treasury for the redemption of bonds numbered 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69 Series A, for $500.00 each, (all bonds of earlier numbers having been called prior to this) and for bonds numbered 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, of Series B, for $500.00 each; and for bonds numbered 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, of Series C; and that the same will be redeemed by the city treasurer at her office in the Klamath State bank, on or after Nov.

1, 1920, and that interest in each of the bonds herein enumerated will cease on Nov. 1, 1920.

IDA B. MOMYER,
City Treasurer of the city of Klamath Falls, Oregon.

"Go and Get It" is half again as long as the average picture. The fact that no one wants to leave before it is over is a tribute to the thrills that Marshall Neilan has cleverly staged.

Do You Know

That in correspondence, the writer is often judged by the Stationary he uses?

In business you must have the plain, conservative letter head style, as it carries a message of plain facts.

Not so in social or friendly correspondence... There you must have Stationary that is neat, beautiful in its simplicity, not too gaudy in colors, not too freakish in design.

That is why our purchases have been along certain lines, because we realize what you want, and you will find at our store this week a selection of Lawns and Linens in boxes, paper and in "pounds," with envelopes to match, and an assortment of correspondence cards.

We will be pleased to show you at moderate prices.
