OREGON BREVITIES

SALEM, Or., Oct. 25.—Dr. Henry James Talbot, since 1914 president of Kimball college of theology in this city, died suddenly, following an attack of heart disease. Although 73 years of age, Dr. Talbot's death was unexpected.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 25.—The student loan fund of the university has almost reached the $10,000 mark, according to Dr. John Straub, dean of men. A loan, not to exceed $300, may be made to any student during his university career under certain conditions and restrictions. The loan fund is administered by a committee consisting of the president of the university, two members of the faculty and two representatives of the university business office. For the last six or eight years actual handling of requests for loans has been done by Dean Straub.

"During the time that I have had the management of the funds," said

THREE DIE MYSTERIOUSLY
OAKLAND, Oct. 25.—Three attaches of the St. Anthony's hospital in this city died and a fourth is believed to be beyond recovery as a result, it is thought, of some sort of food poisoning.

The Permanence of Prosperity
—Depends more upon saving than upon earning. One might get extraordinary wages, but unless he is storing some of the money away each pay day, you can see that he is taking unnecessary chances with his financial welfare.
On the other hand, we have many fairly small earners who have piled up big Savings Accounts at the First National Bank.

Dean Straub, "not a single dollar has been lost."

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 25.—Inconvenience of oftentimes suffering caused by the lack of roads in the northwestern part of Lane county is illustrated in the fact that one day last week four men were compelled to carry Miss Ellen Stevens, resident of the Ten Mile section, many miles of a stretcher over mountain trails to reach a train so she could be sent to Portland for treatment.

MEDFORD, Oct. 25.—Earl Ritchie the pride of Oregon, who made Jack Dempsey step in a six-round bout in Reno, Nevada, shortly before Jack Dempsey beat Willard for the championship of the world is here for the sole purpose of regaining the heavy championship of the Pacific Northwest, while he lost to "Wild Bill" Reed of San Francisco in Klamath Falls, Oregon, last Labor day. The contest takes place Oct. 28.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Oct. 25.—Just to demonstrate that the Riverside farm can compete with any when the exigencies of the occasion require, John Hull, the owner of the farm, has put on exhibition a turnip weighing 20 pounds and having a 33-inch circumference measure.

This is the largest turnip from the patch, but he has many two-thirds that size.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, Oct. 25.—That men earning money to go through college do so by working on all sorts of jobs, from cleaning stovepipes to milking cows, is disclosed by a perusal of the records of the employment bureau of the Y. M. C. A.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Oct. 25.—With weather conditions growing worse by successive stages since the harvest began and now reaching the point where a snow or freeze is threatened, orchardists who have the larger portion of their apples still on trees are growing panicky.
