SACRAMENTO, October 25.—Frenzied buying on the part of eastern speculators may force the price of wine grapes as high as $400 a ton within the next two weeks, according to officials of the California fruit distributors. Choice varieties as the all-time hoppers are now bringing from $325 to $350 a ton while missions range around $250.

WILLOWS, Oct. 25.—The rice growers of this vicinity are keeping a strict watch over the men whom they employ to see that no I. W. W.'s get into their gangs. That there are plenty of that gentry here has been a known fact for months, but they have deported themselves quite peaceably and have therefore escaped trouble with the officers. But the growers are looking for trouble from this on and are going to be prepared to meet it.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 25.—Wine was drunk from the gutter in front of the federal building here today when 800 gallons of various vintages flowed in the streets under the direction of deputy United States marshals.

WILLOWS, Oct. 25.—Within a very few weeks now all the buildings destroyed by the fire on the north side of Sycamore street will either have been rebuilt or work on them begun. By actual count there are now 60-odd men at work on the several buildings.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 25.—One of the few cases in which a man charged with murder has been released on bail in Sacramento county occurred when Victor Bulli, local barber, was released on $10,000 bond, put up for him by friends.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 25.—Switching his operations south of this city, George Poultny, internal revenue officer, and his aides, swooped down on the Union House, a resort on the Lower Rockton road, arrested Manuel Smith, owner of the place and two bartenders, Sylvester Hawk and Manuel Miller, on charges of violating the Volstead act.

The arrests followed the sale of real 7 per cent beer to one of the party.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Heads of families many manufacture, in the home or for home use only, 200 gallons of dry wine or cider, without regard to the alcoholic content and without having to pay any federal tax on it.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 25.—Acting Mayor Ralph McLean of San Francisco while here stated that "the transaction whereby 41 barrels of liquor was released from bond for the entertainment of delegations at the democratic national convention must have been known to Attorney General Palmer as the matter was of general knowledge among the delegates and Palmer was a delegate."

(BY CAPTAIN EDDIE RICKENBACHER)

NOTE—This is another installment of the story by Captain "Eddie" Rickenbacher, American Ace of Aces, on the league of nations.

A soldier knows some things about his country's history. He learned them in high school.

He knows that other soldiers fought to make this country free and independent. He knows that still others fought to keep it so. He fought in France for the same purpose. I know some say the American soldier in France fought to "secure the freedom of mankind." That is wrong. They do not understand the fighting man. He fought to preserve the freedom of his country. Any man of the line will say so. A free and independent United States —that was what he had in mind, and he was ready to die for it, just as others had died for it.

The people who never faced a bullet or heard a shot may have had other ideas. The soldier at the front had this—his country, free and independent, and all that it stood for.

Now, what does the soldier find on his return from France? It is something incredible. He finds a large number of Americans trying through the league of nations to give away the very freedom and independence which he risked his life to preserve. Why do they do it? He can get no answer—that he understands.

American soldiers, American sailors, American workmen are to be exposed to call, regulation and interference of a lot of Asiatics, Europeans and Africans meeting in a distant city which most Americans never saw and whose language even the president of the United States cannot understand.

What is the object of all this? America did not lose in the war. She won. Why should she then be called on to give up the very freedom and independence for which her fighting men fought? Why should she be expected to surrender the very things that all the men who ever fought for her have fought either to gain or to retain?

The soldier hears no plain answer to these plain questions. He hears some vague talk about Europe's wanting American help; but she has had that help. About America's not deserting Europe; but America did not desert Europe. And what has this to do anyhow with taking this free and independent country and placing its fate and future in the hands of foreigners? The soldier cannot tell and nobody seems able to tell him, so he stands aghast when he sees Americans trying to give away, without reason and excuse, what other Americans through over 140 years fought to get and to keep. He is astounded when he reads that the republicans have sent out 20,000 speakers to persuade Americans not to hand themselves over to foreign powers; not to surrender the United States to European, Asiatic and African powers.

To the plain straight forward soldier it all looks like a kind of madness. It is so strange and bewildering that he cannot grasp it. He only knows he is against it and that it is wrong.

GERMANS COMING

PARIS, Oct. 25.—Emigration from Germany to the United States will be tremendous if no barrier is raised by the latter country when peace is finally signed, according to reports reaching Dr. Rupert Blue, surgeon general of the United States public health service, upon whose staff of American doctors is responsibility of medically examining every emigrant bound for America.

The Germans wish to emigrate, according to Dr. Blue's reports, because of the high cost of living and the heavy taxes that will be levied for many years to come.

Wholesale emigration from Germany to the United States is impossible now because the two countries are still technically at war, but Commissioner Drexel at Berlin is allowed vice a maximum of 25 German passports weekly.

LOWING TRADE

LONDON, Oct. 25.—(By Mail)—Captain C. H. Courthope-Munroe, commercial secretary to the British high commission in Constantinople, states that a great deal of trade formerly held by the British at that port has been captured by rival nations.

He mentions that a very strong American combination with a capital of $5,000,000 commenced operations in Constantinople in the summer of last year, sending at intervals vessels from America with their goods and motor lorries to deliver the goods to their customers.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

IF MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT DARKENS SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grand-mother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grams of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.
