

FINDS IGNORANCE OF AUSTRALIA IN UNITED STATES

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Oct. 29.—(By Mail)—"Abyssmal" ignorance about Australia was found in the United States by Professor R. D. Watt of the Sydney university who recently returned from an eight months' tour of the United States, Canada and England.

"They usually spoke of Australia in the United States as a 'little island' and were amazed when told that the area of Australia was greater than that of the United States," Professor said.

"A wrong impression of Australia is conveyed by the newspapers of Canada and America. One would imagine from the newspapers that this was a land of strikers and droughts. America and Canada both have these things but do not advertise them throughout the world as we do."

Professor Watt said he found a labor shortage in Canada and America unprocurable. "This has driven, with domestic servants, many people who would prefer to have their own homes into flats and hotels," he added. "A feature of the flats is the great number of labor saving devices to overcome the problems of domestic help.

"High wages rule but the cost of living is very much in excess of that in Australia," he continued. "A double room in any good hotel in America costs two pounds and upwards per day without meals and one cannot get much of a meal under $2. They do know how to run hotels, however, and my impression is that Sydney could stand a really first class hotel on American lines."

PARTY FUNDS ARE REPORTED

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The total receipts of the democratic national committee to October 25 amounted to $878,831, according to the report of Wilbur W. Marsh, treasurer, to the senate investigating committee. The sum consisted almost entirely of contributions to the campaign fund, except $150,000, which was borrowed.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The republican committee's national campaign will cost $3,442,892, Fred W. Upham, national treasurer, today notified the senate committee. The total exceeds the budget of $3,079,037, presented to the committee in August, but Upham explained that the disbursements covered a period from June 14, last, while the budget included receipts from July 1, only. There were approximately 50,000 contributors to the fund, the smallest being listed at 25 cents.

WINS IN WISCONSIN

Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin, the brilliant young Badger State leader, has just been renominated for the second term in the Senate. Mr. Lenroot won his campaign on the issue of the justification of his own record in voting for the Esch-Cummings Railway Organization Law and denouncing the efforts of the red radical elements to promote the hair-brain Plumb Plan of federal ownership. Senator Lenroot, during his long service in the House of Representatives, was a leader of the progressive element. His election to the speakership in the 56th Congress was conceded in advance of his nomination to the Senate in the spring of 1912, when he succeeded the late Honorable Paul Hastings, Democrat.

Snipe Hunters Have Poor Luck

Snipes are notoriously shy birds, as many "hunters" have found in the past. Despite the luck of others, however, every once in a while some person tries to bag the limit of wary waders, always at the behest of solicitous friends.

Wednesday night a snipe hunting party was arranged by several local boys, among others Glen Inman, Ralph Wilbur, Elmer Lawrence, Lawrence Stewart, John Ohe, J. L. Schmidt and Cornelius Jansen. The last named hunter volunteered to drive the birds and his friends held sacks and lanterns, sort of reverse English on the usual method of snipe hunting.

The bag holders tired early in the evening and came home, but it is reported that Jansen vainly sought to round up the elusive birds until after midnight.

The International Ladies' Garment Workers' union is raising $500,000 with which to establish factories and shops for the manufacture and sale of women's wearing apparel. The sponsors for the movement anticipate that the enterprise will bring down the cost of women's clothing and afford an opportunity to workers to take a part in the management of their industry.

THE HOUSE OF MERIT

AN APPEAL to the Voters of Oregon

The Port of Portland Dock Commission Consolidation Bill on the state ballot should be defeated. While it no doubt affects the whole state in some degree, the enormous expense which it will create must be borne by the taxpayers of the Port of Portland, which contains 209 square miles, or less than one-quarter of one per cent of the area of the state. The Chamber of Commerce, the Taxpayers' League and other Portland organizations and many representative business men have joined hands to acquaint the voters of Oregon with the facts and to enlist their opposition to the measure.

The scheme of improvement proposed by the bill will cost $40,000,000. As a starter, $16,500,000 of bonds are authorized. In violation of the home rule provision of the Constitution of Oregon, the voters of the Port of Portland are denied the right to say how large a debt they are willing to assume. Nor are they given a voice in the selection of the commissioners who are to vote bonded debt upon them, levy taxes for them to pay and manage their business.

The electors of the territory within the Port of Portland are better qualified than anyone else to judge of the amount of bonded debt they should authorize or the taxes they should pay. Their liberality in assuming burdens of public improvement, not only for themselves, but for the state at large, will not be questioned by any one who will scan the record of the huge total of bonds they are now carrying, amounting, in round figures, to $34,000,000. It cannot be thought that the state will be the gainer by imposing upon its chief city the insupportable load of additional debt contemplated by the pending bill.

The sponsors of the Port of Portland bill have openly appealed to the electors of the state at large to vote for it on the ground that it will cost them nothing. This is log-rolling of the most dangerous type. If such methods are to prevail in behalf of direct legislation, no county, city, port or other municipal corporation in the state will be safe from having intolerable debts and taxes foisted upon it by indifferent voters from other parts of the state. Bills like this must be rejected by the voters if home rule is to retain its vital force. Home rule and such bills cannot survive together. One or the other must fall.

The voters of the Port of Portland are not asking to be relieved of their responsibility to create and maintain the necessary facilities for ocean commerce. They desire only that they be given a voice in the management of their affairs, and that, through the established processes of law, they be permitted to adopt a plan of port development which will not load millions of dollars of debt upon them.

Voters are Requested to VOTE 311 NO
