

AT THE THEATERS

One of the cleverest and most appealing pictures of the season will be seen in the Metro presentation of "The Spender," a production in which Bert Lytell has reached a high standard of achievement. This play, which will be shown at the Liberty theatre tonight, was adapted from the story of the same name that appeared in the Saturday Evening Post and which was written by Frederick Orin Bartlett. At the time of its publication the story attracted nation-wide notices and was declared by other authors to be a gem of humor and ingenuity, worthy of being called a classic. In its adaptation for the screen the plot has been very carefully followed and the picture has proved one of those surprises which jaded critics often hope for but seldom see. It contains many laughs and much wholesome romance which makes it a veritable mine of delight.

In "The Deep Purple," R. A. Walsh's film version of Paul Armstrong's and Wilson Miner's famous play, patrons of the motion picture will view something new in the way of crime depiction on the screen. The photoplay is showing Sunday at the Liberty theatre, and represents one of the best screen offerings presented here in some time. Suspense is well sustained, and Director Walsh, now an independent producer, has succeeded in developing a crook play from a new angle.

"In the Heart of a Fool" an Allan Dwan production, presented by the Mayflower Photoplay corporation as a First national attraction, will be shown at the Star on Sunday. The action of this picture occurs in a small middle west city and its story concerns the affairs of people we all know. For this reason it has a tremendous appeal to all theatre-goers who see on the screen a type of people they are all familiar with. Into the peaceful community in this little city is injected two dangerous disturbers—a fool who makes of woman his God and a vampire girl who lives only for conquest of hearts.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Finish your kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly. No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Most forms uric acid which clog the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot be beaten. It is a water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

AN APPEAL to the Voters of Oregon

The Port of Portland Dock Commission Consolidation Bill on the state ballot should be defeated. While it no doubt affects the whole state in some degree, the enormous expense which it will create must be borne by the taxpayers of the Port of Portland, which contains 209 square miles, or less than one-quarter of one per cent of the area of the state. The Chamber of Commerce, the Taxpayers' League and other Portland organizations and many representative business men have joined hands to acquaint the voters of Oregon with the facts and to enlist their opposition to the measure. The scheme of improvement proposed by the bill will cost $40,000,000. As a starter, $16,500,000 of bonds are authorized. In violation of the home rule provision of the Constitution of Oregon, the voters of the Port of Portland are denied the right to say how large a debt they are willing to assume. Nor are they given a voice in the selection of the commissioners who are to vote bonded debt upon them, levy taxes for them to pay and manage their business. The electors of the territory within the Port of Portland are better qualified than anyone else to judge of the amount of bonded debt they should authorize or the taxes they should pay. Their liberality in assuming burdens of public improvement, not only for themselves, but for the state at large, will not be questioned by any one who will scan the record of the huge total of bonds they are now carrying, amounting, in round figures, to $24,000,000. It cannot be thought that the state will be the gainer by imposing upon its chief city the insupportable load of additional debt contemplated by the pending bill. The sponsors of the Port of Portland bill have openly appealed to the electors of the state at large to vote for it on the ground that it will cost them nothing. This is log-rolling of the most dangerous type. If such methods are to prevail in behalf of direct legislation, no county, city, port or other municipal corporation in the state will be safe from having intolerable debts and taxes foisted upon it by indifferent voters from other parts of the state. Bills like this must be rejected by the voters if home rule is to retain its vital force. Home rule and such bills cannot survive together. One or the other must fall. The voters of the Port of Portland are not asking to be relieved of their responsibility to create and maintain the necessary facilities for ocean commerce. They desire only that they be given a voice in the management of their affairs, and that, through the established processes of law, they be permitted to adopt a plan of port development which will not load millions of dollars of debt upon them.
