STANFIELD OR COX?

In the heat of the courthouse struggle, the people have lost sight of national issues, and The Herald has not had space to give it proper attention. But on the eve of election, we are appealing to every voter to send Stanfield to the Senate. We all know Harding is going to win, but if you elect a democratic senate, it is the same as electing Cox. If you vote against Stanfield, you vote for Cox. Supporting Chamberlain should win and it took just his vote to make the senate democratic. It would mean that every committee would be democratic. That we would lose the chairmanship of the irrigation committee, to us the most important in the senate. We would be blocked from passing any tariff legislation. Our every interest would suffer but above it all you would be trying the hands of President Harding. Don't double cross him by giving him power on one hand and taking it away with the other. Play fair with him. If you can't vote for Stanfield, then vote for Cox. You will at least have the satisfaction of being consistent.

THE HERALD "ANSWERED"

Those who attended one of the local theatres last night—2 to be exact—could not help but notice the unfairness of the friends of Bunnell and Short when City Editor Soule arose to correct the misstatement of the speaker. He was denied the hearing that the Bunnell-Short following are so loudly demanding. And the speaker could not stand up against the straight-from-the-shoulder contradiction. He knew he misstated the facts and had to hunt cover.

As to the rest of the "answer," it did not materialize. Personal abuse of an individual is no argument. The people are out for facts and if The Herald has misstated anything in this campaign they want to know it. It is not necessary to hire a hell to tell it, either. The columns of this paper are open, free of charge, to anyone to submit their proof.

ELBERT BRADBURY

The attention of the voters of the county is called to the fact that if R. E. Bradbury is defeated for the legislature, Klamath county will be without a local representative in the legislature. This would be unfortunate, as legislation vital to the county's interests will be up for consideration. The surest way to land Bradbury is to vote for him exclusively. The interests of the county demand such a step.

One Pledge That They Didn't Keep

fighters whose blows are guided by reason, and they realize the fight has been mismanaged, that the victory that might have been won has been lost and that the fruits of further fighting will not gain, but lose.

Because their voices are raised only in their own neighborhoods, they do not share the aspersions directed against The Herald, but they are guided by like motives and they are the voters who will defeat Judge Bunnell and Burrell Short next Tuesday, they and scores of others, of changed convictions, whom The Herald has not interviewed.

Because he has failed when a litigant's diplomacy, a sprinkling of tact, would have won. Try as to escape the conviction of Judge Bunnell's responsibility for the situation in which he finds himself, the facts are unescapable.

The integrity of The Herald is beside the question and the attempts to impeach the reputation of its editor are mere camouflage. If the motives and the character of The Herald were all that its opponents claim in their campaign of vilification it would not alter the facts that The Herald has printed one iota. And the people of Klamath county know it.

"Judge Bunnell," said one voter, "promised us to finish the Hot Springs courthouse for a specific sum—$165,000. On that understanding I voted for him. But I did not authorize him by my vote to spend twice that amount and more to finish that courthouse. I fought for that courthouse from the beginning and if we could have it today on the same terms that we can have the Main street courthouse, I would still be for it. But the facts of the situation admit of no 'ifs' and I am for Chamberlain and Peterson and peace."
