

MILLIONS WON AND LOST ON PARIS TABLES

PARIS, Sept. 30.—(By Mail)—Millions of francs were won and lost across the baccarat tables and the roulette wheels in a frenzy of gambling for stakes hitherto unknown in France during the season which is drawing to a close at Deauville.

Foreigners have been conspicuous in keeping the croupiers busy passing stakes over the green carpets. Mr. Vagliani, a Greek ship owner, according to L'Avenir, won 3,600,000 francs at baccarat in a sitting of three hours and a half at Deauville recently. On the other hand, an American, whom the newspapers refer to as the "Tobacco King" is said to have dropped 1,500,000 francs between midnight and daybreak one night during the past week.

"Oh, pahaw, it only means a little over $100,000," he is reported to have told a consoling piker.

But the most extraordinary player of them all is a young Cuban, a sugar grower of Havana, who is said to have won about 5,000,000 francs after losing 3,500,000 in August.

"Whether winning or losing his face never gives him away to his opponents and his manner of dealing reminds one of a cat gently stretching out its paw," a French theatrical manager just returning from Deauville told journalists.

Mrs. Pauline O. Field, who has been honored with the presidency of the "criminal bar association of New York city, is the only woman member of that organization.

"I smiled—and he shot me"

AFTER MONTHS and months, MY WIFE persuaded me, TO HAVE it done, SO I went around, TO THE photographer, AND GOT nuzzed, WHEN THE pictures came, I SHOWED them to a gang, OF AMATEUR art critics, AND PROFESSIONAL crabs, DISGUISED AS friends, WHO FAVORED me, WITH SUCH remarks as, "DOESN'T HE look natural?" "HAS IT got a tail?" "A GREAT resemblance," AND THAT last one, MADE ME sore, SO WHEN friend wife,

ADDED HER howl, I TRIED again, THIS TIME they were great, FOR HERE'S what happened, THE PHOTOGRAPHER said, "LOOK THIS way, please," AND HELD up something, AS HE pushed the button, AND NO one could help, BUT LOOK pleasant, FOR WHAT he held up, WAS A nice full pack, OF THE cigarettes, THAT SATISFY,
