Paris Hotel Men Are Satisfied With Trade

PARIS, Oct. 16.—(By Mail)—The enthusiastically predicted 1,000,000 American tourists did not come to France this year but the hotel keepers, their association officials say, are satisfied.

Instead, there were on record 200,000 police permits issued to tourists intending to remain more than 15 days. Among these South America sent the greater number, with the United States a good second and other countries trailing.

One ill wind that blew well in France was the high exchange rate of the Swiss franc so that travellers gave the preference to this country where their money went about twice as far as in the Alps.

ROOM SHORTAGE SERIOUS VIENNA

VIENNA, Oct. 12.—(By Mail)—Like nearly every other city in Europe, Vienna's rooming accommodation is taxed beyond capacity. The hotels are overflowing at exorbitant rates (in crown values.) Every train unloads its quota of newcomers to travel in taxicabs and flavors from one end of the city to the other in search of sleeping quarters, while even the room requisitioning system by the government fails to house many thousands.

American visitor wishing to go from Vienna to Budapest telegraphed daily for a week, receiving daily the reply, "nothing available." An American woman, wife of a consul arrived the other day and it required all the influence of four American officials to secure her a bathroom in which to sleep.

To solve the permanent rooming problem the city authorities have passed an ordinance permitting the reconstruction of the attics of apartment buildings for sleeping quarters. This space under the roof is meant as storage room for tenants and for laundry drying purposes. It was unlawful to permit anyone to sleep there and an ordinance required the concierge to lock the entrance at 7 p. m. It is estimated that there are 40,000 such buildings in the city, but how many landlords will go to the expense of alteration remains to be seen.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—(By Mail)—Whalers from the Shetland Islands have had a successful season this year and at Olmafirth stations 260 whales have been brought in. At Colafirth station the total catch landed was 150.

JAPAN WILL NOT REDUCE ARMAMENTS

TOKIO, Oct. 20.—(By mail)—Japan is not likely to subscribe to the idea that the naval strength of nations which are members of the league of nations shall be cut down or their increase stopped, in the opinion of the leading daily, the Nichi Nichi.

"All powers are agreed on that proposition on principle," observes the Nichi Nichi in its political news column. "But the United States, which was the power that proposed curtailment of naval expansion, has not as yet joined the league, and she is fast increasing her naval strength. Even if other powers should strictly and faithfully adhere to the principle of reduction, the peace of the world will just the same be menaced by the powerful naval power of America."

"Thus the general conference of the league of nations will not accomplish anything, except that each of the members present will search into the heart of another." (The first meeting of the assembly of the league of nations has been called at Geneva for November 15th.)

The Nichi Nichi therefore observed that the Japanese navy would consider the question from the peculiarly Japanese point of view regardless of whether any definite program be formulated by the conference as to the naval restriction and regardless of the attitude of France, England, Italy and other powers. Already an investigation had been conducted in the navy by such officials as Rear-Admiral Yasuho, Captain Kiyokawa and other members of the investigation committee. A policy of the Japanese empire has already been decided upon, but "owing to the lack of information as to what attitude England, France, Italy and other countries will be, the nature of the policy was not made public, the Nichi Nichi says.

"But briefly speaking," the Nichi Nichi goes on, "the policy, it may be understood, may be summarized as follows:

"The eight battleships and eight cruisers plan, which had been a long cherished idea, and which was approved by the recent session, is insufficient as the minimum strength to perfect the defense work of the empire. In other words, in case the powers present in the conference propose to limit naval construction on the basis of its not going beyond the plans now in process of completion, the Imperial Japanese navy will have to maintain that the recent plan approved of (the eight and eight units) is by no means its final plan of national defense. As was explained at the 41st session of the diet by the navy minister, the empire must have as the minimum naval strength necessary for defense two units of eight battleships and four cruisers of a latest type and of the serviceable age—that is about eight years or younger—or three units of eight ships, totalling 24 principal vessels. This plan must be completed, regarding the time of completion.

Spaniards Have no Use for Timepieces

MADRID, Oct. 16.—(By Mail)—Foreign visitors after a short stay in Madrid begin to doubt whether Spaniards are able to tell the time. There are scores of public clocks in government buildings and on church towers and nearly every Spaniard carries a watch, which he often looks at, but apparently these do not mean anything to the average citizen.

An invitation to a meal at a certain hour means that the host or the guest will appear half an hour or more late. An appointment for a fixed time and place nearly always finds both parties absent at the hour named. An interview arranged with an official involves usually a wait of an hour in the ante-room. The tailor will not be ready to try on your suit until at least two days after he has promised to do so.

It is either morning, noon, evening or night with Spaniards generally—and of course the eternal manana which never comes. The exact hour is nothing to them; yet thousands of them will assemble on the plaza del sol to watch the fall of the globe on the ministry of the interior at noon every day.

WILL START BELGRADE, Oct. 17 (By Mail)—It is announced that the construction of a railway connecting Belgrade with the Adriatic at Cattaro is to begin in the near future. The route was suggested by Colonels Coe and Atwood of an American technical mission. The important work at Cattaro is to begin at the same time.

TYPHUS FEVER LAYS BLIGHT UPON POLAND

WARSAW, Oct. 13.—(By Mail)—Poland is in far worse condition from typhus fever dangers than ever in her history, says a report by Colonel Harry L. Gilchrist, commander of the American Polish relief expedition which has been cooperating with the Polish government more than a year in an effort to wipe out the disease.

"Unless outside aid is forthcoming at once," says the reports, "suffering will be intense during the approaching winter and all Europe will be threatened with a terrible typhus fever epidemic."

Increased dangers from the spread of typhus fever has been brought about by the Polish-Russian war which has destroyed all eastern defenses against the infected regions of Russia as the armies have pushed each other back and forth across the disputed districts.

Regarding the bolshevik activities in August which threatened Warsaw for days and their effect upon the typhus fever situation, Colonel Gilchrist summarizing his report, attributed the renewed dangers to the following causes:

"Complete abandonment of all typhus fever districts of Poland; capture by the bolsheviks of all eastern quarantine stations and removal of the barriers established under great difficulties; capture and destruction of much of the paraphernalia and materials which had been distributed in many towns and villages throughout the typhus districts, introduction by bolshevik troops of a new source of contamination to places free from the disease, infecting of the armies of Poland, and infecting of the populace returning to homes recently occupied by bolshevik soldiers."

Poland realizes the seriousness of the present situation, and is doing all in her power to cope with it, says the report, but which a war on hand, and limited facilities to work with, the government officials can do but little.

In closing Colonel Gilchrist says:

Laff Your Darn Head Off when you see Buster Keaton in "One Week." Of course it's at the Liberty tonight.

"While there are no figures available to enumerate the actual amount of damage wrought by the bolshevik armies in their recent advances toward Poland, it is predicted by the most conservative that the number of new typhus carriers scattered over all Poland will reach many thousands, and the financial loss due to the destruction of sanitary materials, crops and other property will run into millions of dollars."

BOLSHEVIST INFECTON FEARED

THE HAGUE, Holland, Oct. 24.—Holland has lifted a number of travel restrictions upon foreign visitors who have heretofore been subjected to considerable difficulties and annoyances. The new regulations do away with the former compulsory police registration in respect of American, British, French, Italian and other tourists from western Europe, but it is still imposed upon Germans, Russians and other from eastern countries, owing to the fear of bolshevik infection.

As a result of the former stringent rules, Holland has had very little tourist traffic this summer.
