

GRANT'S STATUE WAS 18 YEARS IN BUILDING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Eighteen years in the making, a memorial to General U. S. Grant is nearing completion here and probably will be unveiled before the end of the year. It is in the form of a magnificent equestrian statue of bronze, the second largest of its kind in the world, mounted on a granite pedestal and flanked on the left by a casting of a group of cavalry and on the right by a group of artillery, both groups done in bronze. Two huge lions in stone at the foot of the pedestal complete the memorial.

The equestrian figure stands 15 feet high, weighs 10,700 pounds and cost $250,000. The memorial is located in the Botanic Gardens at the foot of the capitol and congress has approved the removal of a section of the iron fence on the east front of the gardens to admit the statue and to provide space for spectators at the unveiling ceremonies.

Authorities for the creation of the memorial was given by congress on February 23, 1902. The competition for the statue was held in 1902 and the award was to Henry M. Shady, a noted sculptor, of Elmwood, N. Y., whose design was selected, by Daniel Burnham and Charles F. McKim. The pedestal was designed by Edward Pierce Casey, of New York, associated with Mr. Shady, and was completed and put in place in 1906.

The equestrian statue has just now been finished, however, and was shipped here in sections by motor truck from New York city.

The memorial to the famous general and 18th president of the United States will bear no inscription, according to members of the Fine Arts commission, who recently approved the statue in its completed form. A member of the Grant memorial commission had composed a lengthy inscription, but after careful consideration officials of the commission and of the office of public building and grounds deemed an inscription unnecessary.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulates them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Says Inexperienced Operators Favored in Ship Division

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Individuals and corporations of no financial standing and no experience in maritime affairs have been allocated shipping board vessels for operation, J. F. Richardson testified when the Walsh congressional committee resumed investigation of alleged irregularities in shipping board affairs.

Richardson, who is secretary to the Walsh committee, conducted the investigation into the board's operating methods.

He declared that irresponsible individuals were favored while established steamship companies complained of their inability to obtain any tonnage from the government.

FORMER GERMAN FIGHTERS ARE WITHOUT WORK

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—(By Mail)—Many of the 50,000 former German officers discharged since the signing of the armistice have joined the great army of unemployed in Germany, a few have gone to work at hard labor and others are trying to make small pensions pay for the expensive necessities of mere existence. Officers belonging to old, aristocratic, once wealthy families are in no better situation than their comrades who relied for a living upon their army pay. They have long since disposed of most of their personal property and it is not uncommon to see one of them, suppressing his pride and offering to some foreigner a family heirloom for enough money to pay a grocery bill.

Those who are doing hard labor must work half a day for the price of a pound of meat and all day for a pound of butter. A number of them have been unable to buy civilian clothes and are working in uniforms thin and frayed by much wear.

The wives and sisters of some of these men have gone into the shops where they earn 350 marks a month, a sum which a guest at any one of the international hotels frequently pays for a single meal. The widow of a colonel who was killed at the front is supporting four children on a pension of less than 700 marks a month.

Former soldiers, and particularly the wounded whose pensions are inadequate to supply them with food, have been hard-hit. Day and night they may be seen standing on the streets with cap in hand, begging, or selling matches. They still wear their uniforms, or parts of uniforms, and some of them, to incite pity, exhibit their wounds.

A party of Americans walking down Unter den Linden one night saw a former soldier stagger and fall to the pavement, unconscious. City physicians who examined him said he had fainted from hunger. Later it was learned that, too proud to ask alms, he had gone for days without food.

When a purse of a few marks was collected for him he accepted it and thanked the donors.

HAMBURG STREET CARS HAVE LETTER BOXES

ROTTERDAM, Oct. 21.—(By Mail)—Street cars in Hamburg have all been equipped with mail boxes for posting letters. Telegrams, with stamps for payment affixed, may also be deposited in them. The experiment has been a great success, a Dutch correspondent says, and other German cities are expected to adopt the plan.

To whom it may concern:

Memorials Planned for Mayflower Dead by Descendants

BOSTON, Nov. 11.—The erection at Provincetown and Boston of memorials to the five Mayflower passengers who died at these places will be the contribution of the Massachusetts Society of the Mayflower Descendants to the celebration of the tercentenary of the Pilgrims' landing. A tablet will be set in a bower at Provincetown and another will be placed on the building in Spring Lane, Boston, now occupying the site of the last home of Mary (Chilton) Winslow, who is said to have been the first girl passenger to land at Plymouth.

Four passengers died during the December days of 1620 while the Mayflower lay at anchor in Cape Cod harbor, now Provincetown. Two days before the little ship set sail for the permanent settlement at Plymouth, James Chilton, who had been one of the signers of the famous Mayflower Compact in Cape Cod harbor, died. A day before the little band had lost Mrs. Dorothy Bradford, first wife of Governor William Bradford, by accidental drowning, and the deaths occurred also of Edward Thomson, a servant and Jasper More, a child.

Mary Chilton, who was the daughter of James Chilton, sailed on for Plymouth with her mother, and struggled through the trying times of the colony's early days. She later married John Winslow and before 1660 they removed to Boston, where she died in 1679, having survived her husband by five years. She was the only Mayflower passenger to become a resident of Boston.

AIR FLEET TO RACE FOR CUP

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—An aerial armada greater than any ever before assembled for a race will compete for the Pulitzer trophy Thanksgiving day, starting and ending at Mitchel Field, Mineola, New York. Forty or more airplanes with speeds exceeding 100 miles an hour are to participate in the 160-mile flight over a closed triangular course.

Eighteen army airplanes and eight representing the navy already have been entered, according to the aero club of America, which will conduct the race. Sadi Lecointe, winner of the recent Gordon-Bennett trophy contest at Paris may be a contestant, and each of the American airplanes entered in that international speed race is expected to be in the starting line-up at Mineola.

Aviation organizations of foreign countries have expressed interest in the coming contest and an inquiry from the French aero club indicated its desire to enter one or more "ships."

The Pulitzer trophy, donated by Ralph Pulitzer to the aero club of America, is to be competed for annually, the coming race the first. Gold, silver and bronze plaques have been hung up for winners of first, second and third places, and in addition, nearly $4000 in Liberty bonds is to be awarded pilots of craft which perform best in machines of various classes.

Free-for-all is the type of race it will be, but each plane must have an air speed greater than 100 miles an hour as loaded for the start of the race, and the factors of safety, visibility and maneuverability are to be considered by the judges before entrants can start.

Four 40-mile laps will be embraced in the 160-mile triangular course with the turns at Wantage and Babylon, Long Island.
