PINCH BEGINS FROM LACK OF WORK AND CASH

PORTLAND, Nov. 19.—Portland once again may experience a plague of "moochers" and "panhandlers" on the city streets, after a lapse of four years. From all indications there is likely to be some suffering from hunger and lack of employment in this city during the coming winter. Yesterday the secretary of the Knights of Columbus employment bureau in the north end met with his first case of real destitution for some months—a man we really needed a meal.

To first indication that the average city dweller had of a change of conditions was the announcement from the state labor bureau in Salem Saturday that there were 7000 men out of work in Portland. This estimate was thought to be exaggerated. It was admitted, however, by those in touch with the situation that there are several thousand men out of work.

There are plenty of men after the available jobs. The blackboards at the employment agencies yesterday were black, the first signs of chalk attracting a good number of men and one agent estimated yesterday that there were 50 applicants for every job.

Lumber accounts for the employment of fully 55 per cent of the labor in this state, according to fairly reliable estimates. The crucial state of the lumber market has been blamed for some of the unemployment. Many orders for western mills were canceled August 25 when it was seen that the mills could not compete with southern plants producing pine. Several mills in this city that are operating up to capacity are just hanging on and piling up their lumber. Most of the local plants are curtailing their output. All have ceased night shifts. While most are operating on a six-day schedule, two already have come down to a five-day week and one has shut down altogether.

The Silver Falls Timber company at Silverton has closed, as has the Bridal Veil plant at Palmer, though the last named company is still operating its finish mill at Bridal Veil. The Wind river camps at Cascade locks have closed and their mill work has been greatly curtailed. The Brighton Lumber company at Tillamook has ceased operations as has the Eagle Lumber company at west-timber.

Near Eugene the Booth-Kelly camps have been closed for some time, but they hope to resume operations this week. Many men are coming to Portland from San Francisco or Seattle, where the situation is much more acute. The big influx of vacationists from the woods is expected here from December 15 to 20.

The death of Evander M. Law, of Bartow, Fla., has left only two surviving general officers of the Confederate states army. They are Gen. Marcus J. Wright, of Washington, D. C., and Gen. Felix J. Robertson of Waco, Texas.

Some time ago a public funeral was accorded by the villagers of Zofingen, Switzerland, to a hen that died immediately after laying its thousandth egg; and a granite tombstone was afterwards erected by them over its grave.

Egyptian Women Waken to Liberty

LONDON, Oct. 30.—(By Mail.)—Egyptian women are at last beginning to take an interest in public affairs, particularly in the schools. Viscount Milner in his report as high commissioner of Egypt says that no change which has taken place in that country in the last few years none is more striking than the awakening interest of women in affairs outside of the home.

The commissioner added that a few years ago it was rare to find a mother showing a direct personal interest in the welfare of her daughter at school. All this was left to the father who often had to overcome the mother's opposition to the education of her daughter. "During the last few years these conditions have changed in the larger towns where mothers now visit the schools discuss their daughter's progress with the head teacher," said the report.

This change is attributed by the high commissioner largely to education and he predicts that its influence will be potent on the future progress of educational development in Egypt.

"Ouija! What's the good word?" MY YOUNG sister, HAS A Ouija board, AND SHE believes it, AND TALKS to Noah, AND I thinks she talks, TO HER best fellow, WHO'S DEAD but doesn't know it, AND I used to give her, THE LOUD, rude laugh, BUT I'M sorry now, BECAUSE LAST night, I WAS home alone, SO I got the board, AND PUT in a call, FOR JOHN Barleycorn, AND OTHER departed spirits, BUT THE line was busy, FOR NOTHING happened, THEN I cheated a little, AND IT spelled this, "GRAMMASHOTTA SEVEN," SO I shut off quick, TO HEAD off any, FURTHER FAMILY scandal, THEN I stopped to smoke, A CIGARETTE, AND AFTER a while, I CRANKED up weefee, AND ALL of a sudden, IT STARTED off, AND QUICK as a flash, IT SAID something, "THEY SATISFY," "SATISFY!"—that's the good word. Just light up a Chesterfield and see what experts can do with fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos when they blend them in that can't-be-cooped Chesterfield way. You'll say "they satisfy."
