PERSONAL MENTION

W. C. Dalton was a county seat visitor yesterday afternoon from his ranch home at Malin.
 Mrs. C. F. Stone arrived from Portland the middle of the week after an absence of several weeks.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Cofer are moving today into their beautiful new brick home at 514 Tenth street. This is one of the finest new homes in the city, and is located on what is undoubtedly one of the choicest residence streets in Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Cofer have sold their old home to Mr. and Mrs. Richter. Mr. Richter is interested in the Palace market.
 Mrs. Harry Ackley, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Ashland and Medford for the past month or two, returned home Wednesday on the evening train.
 Miss Clara Calkins returned last night from Eugene, where she has been attending the Oregon home-coming week-end.

 Sheriff George Humphrey returned home from Portland last night after a week spent there on business. Mrs. Humphrey, who accompanied him, stopped in Weed for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.
 Mrs. Harry Pelts has returned after several weeks' visit in California.
 Mrs. John Foster, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herbert McCarthy, in Ashland for the past two weeks, is home once more, having arrived Wednesday evening.
 P. J. Bowling, Ben Gay and A. W. Shur were all business visitors here this morning. They report that the roads have been made rather bad traveling by the recent rain.
 John Schmor and Otto Boye, prosperous Bly farmers, made a visit to Klamath Falls this morning to purchase supplies and to attend to business at the court house.
 J. R. Sisemore and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hickman are in town from Fort Klamath for a few days.
 J. T. Dixon, a cattle man in the Fort country, is here on matters of business today.
 Hall S. Lusk, assistant United States attorney, and George F. Alexander, United States marshal, who arrived here Tuesday on government matters, have gone up on the reservation, where they will make some arrests, and accompanied by Walter G. West, will go out after a Thanksgiving goose.

 J. O. Goldthwaite, lumber operator, is in town today from Chiloquin on matters of business.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tower of Keno braved the storm yesterday and came into town after supplies.
 Mrs. E. P. Knapp is visiting here this week from her home at Macdoel.
