RAIN HOLDS UP THRESHING IN LANGELL VALLEY

LANGELL VALLEY, Nov. 22.—The threshers have been delayed since last week, owing to the heavy rains. They were threshing for Miller Brothers, and have yet the Messrs. Prince, Kilgore, Crowley, Bischoff, and Boggs crops to thresh.

The Vinson school has been dismissed for the last week, owing to the illness of the teacher, Mrs. Cleve Ferris.

One of the most delightful evenings of the winter was spent November 11th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kilgore. It being the anniversary of the natal day of Mrs. Kilgore, and also, armistice day. The jollification was a celebration in honor of both events.

Mr. David Turner and family spent Sunday in Bonanza.

Two quite serious accidents have happened in Upper Langell valley in the past two weeks. The horse he was riding stumbled and threw Billy Deal to the ground, breaking a rib, bruising and battering him up generally. A Klamath Falls physician was called and relieved the suffering man. The other accident occurred when Wm. Cotton's mule ran away with him and hurt him slightly, skinning his face and hands.

Mrs. Will Campbell entertained at cards Saturday evening. The invited guests included Messrs and Mesdames John Turner, Dave Turner, Alfred Keller, Gus Keller and H. E. Winnard.

Mr. and Mrs. Capt. Hall have been visiting in Klamath Falls the past week.

Ivan Kilgore took about 400 head of steers to Tule lake to feed this winter.

Lester Boggs visited Scheble brothers Monday.

Word has been received in the valley to the effect that Mrs. Alice Deal and John V. Corkery were married at Red Bluff, California in the early part of November. Neighbors extend to them their heartiest wishes for a happy and prosperous married life.

C. T. Darley has been surveying around the river in Upper Langell valley the past week. In behalf of the Irrigation district, Ben Reed of Bonanza has been helping him with the work. The people of the valley are disappointed in the fact that the bids on the ditch work under the irrigation system were not let, as many had planned on having the water for next years crops.

Will Campbell and Will Eder rode for stock in the lower end of the valley, while Ivan Kilgore and men rode the upper part of the valley. Merle Kilgore and Everett Malone the eastern hills and all exchanged stock Sunday at the pre-emption.

The dance at the dance hall in Upper Langell valley was not very well attended last Friday, owing to the bad roads.

Virgil Deal had the misfortune to slip off the grade at the Ivan Kilgore place one day last week, while returning from Bonanza with a load of grain. He, with the help of a team made the journey on home the next day.

John Horn came up from Bonanza Tuesday with a team and wagon and reports that the Allen hill is almost impossible, owing to the recent rains.

Merle Kilgore took his cattle to Tule lake to field for the winter last week.

Coyotes have been annoying the stockmen and farmers in the valley all winter and have become much more prevalent within the last two weeks, than ever before, it being no uncommon sight to see 4 or 5 in a pack in the daytime.

Bunny Casey made a trip to town Friday to get his children, who are attending school there.

Cyrus Mrown has the everlasting smile, and he says it's a boy.

SERVES YOU RIGHT

SERVES YOU RIGHT

HAVE YOUR THANKSGIVING DINNER AT THE CLUB CAFE

The place that is more than holding its own on a side street. Why? Because it serves you right.

A real old-fashioned Thanksgiving Dinner with all the trimmings, seasoned just right, and served piping hot.

Our Bill of Fare will be printed in English—no French names copied from a two-dollar cook book to confuse you and spoil your dinner.

Listen, Folks! There are two kinds of chestnuts—don't let anyone kid you. Our Turkeys, Geese and Chickens will be stuffed with dressing made from dry bread, minced fried onions, celery and maybe some oysters, all properly seasoned by one who knows how. There's the difference!

The Plum Pudding is made on the premises. We don't get it in tin cans from the store; and fruit cake you won't have room for when you get through with a real turkey dinner, that is as pleasing to the stomach as it is to the eye.

It is an old saying: "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." The wonderful business we have enjoyed on a side street plainly shows the pudding must be good here.
