

HERE'S A PICTURE OF THAT FAMOUS FOOTBALL FIELD—THE YALE BOWL

It was in their own kennel last Saturday that the Harvard grid squad pulled the teeth of the Bulldogs to the tune of a 9-0 score. The huge stadium was built to seat 60,000 people, but additional seats have been placed around the top and bottom of the bowl to seat 13,000 more. Every seat was filled for the Yale-Harvard game, and 25,000 more football enthusiasts would have seen the great classic had seats been available.

to get into the room Palmer did not know. He understood that Mary had exhibited a gun that morning, and that Jasper had tried to take it from her without success. She concealed the gun under her sweater Mr. Palmer had been told. Incidentally, when the body was found, there was no sweater on it. How Mary managed to keep the gun against her husband's superior strength, Mr. Palmer did not state.

Accused Man Is Youth
Eli George, a Modoc Indian from Snake river, testified next. Eli, whose looks belie his age, stated that he had known Jasper, 30 years—perhaps 40. He was 48 years old, he said, this statement arousing interest in the possible age of Jasper who does not appear to be far away from boyhood days.

On July 6th, during a protracted Fourth of July celebration by the Indians near Yanix, Jasper, apparently under the influence of liquor, seized him by the lapel of his coat and loudly declared that he was "the fellow who killed my wife," and that he knew that George had been working against him. Cross examined by Attorney Manning, George stated Jasper had simply accused him of spreading reports that he had killed his wife, and then on further examination by Mr. Lusk repeated his former testimony to the effect that Jasper had declared he was his wife's murderer. He was positive that he had not spread such stories, and that he had not mentioned anything about it until after Jasper had made the open statement that he did the killing. Even then, he had talked about it with no one but Johnny Godowa, the dead woman's father.

Heard Suspicious Remark
Peter Sonschin, testified that he heard Jasper, at the celebration, say: "I did it, what can you do?" Peter did not know what Jasper was talking about when he made the statement. Jasper was talking to Tall Jim, another Indian, when Peter overheard the remark.

Says Turner Confessed
Tall Jim, otherwise known as Frank Lynch, was called. Jasper, he said, was drunk at the celebration, and had approached him in a threatening manner saying: "I killed my wife, what you going to do about it? I've got enough money to fight against anybody."

Jasper had pulled a knife he said, and the knife was taken from him by Watson Duffy who was a witness to the scene. Tall Jim was positive the Jasper had been drinking, and that he, himself, was sober, as he hadn't "smelled anything all day." Furthermore he had not been with the white folks and had no chance to get drunk.

Threatened His Wife
Edmund Duffer, an aged Plute, testified comprehensively regarding trouble between Jasper and Mary Turner. A month or more before the shooting, Jasper and Mary and Mary's mother, Elizabeth Godowa, had driven to his place in an auto. Stopping the auto, Jasper asked permission to leave some quilts at the Duffer place. Then ensued a quarrel between Jasper and his wife and Jasper quoted as saying: "You—Plute woman—I'm going to kill you some of these days." What the trouble was about Duffer did not know.

Johnny Godowa, father of Mary Turner, testified with the aid of an interpreter. He said that he had gone to the Turner home, and found Jasper and Mary quarreling, and that Jasper had told him to take the "woman" home with him. Godowa replied that he would take both the woman and baby, but as he had only a saddle horse he did not take them at that time. Furthermore he said that Jasper told him he was going to kill Mary in Klamath Falls, but changed his mind and brought her back again. "If you don't take her away, I am liable to kill her anytime," Jasper is reported to have said at this time.

Waive Medical Testimony
Dr. Abbot, who examined the body after the shooting, was expected to arrive in time to testify, but his arrival was delayed so long that both sides agreed to waive further testimony.

Turner was bound over on a charge of second degree murder, William Turner Jackson and Ike Jackson assuming his bond.

Only once did Jasper show any real concern in the proceedings, and that was when Eli George testified defiantly that he had committed the murder. Jasper laughed audibly at this testimony.
