Ft. Klamath Man On Trip; Bramwell Gets Bag of Geese

(Portland Oregonian.)
Guy A. Lawton is at the Imperial from Fort Klamath, which doesn't mean anything to most of the present generations of Oregonians. In other days when the Modocs fought Uncle Sam's army to a standstill in the lava beds, Fort Klamath, a military post in the Klamath Indian reservation, broke into the front page of all the newspapers of the nation. Captain Jack and other leaders of the Modocs were executed and buried at Fort Klamath. For years some of the regular army soldiers stationed there used to sell bits of rope to visitors, assuring the tenderfeet that the rope was the identical one with which Captain Jack was hanged.

With enough geese to keep him in food for months and a very bad cold, Frank C. Bramwell of Grants Pass has returned from a trip to Klamath county. Mr. Bramwell, cashier of a bank at Grants Pass, is registered at the Hotel Oregon. For three days and three nights there was incessant rain and Br. Bramwell had to live out and sleep out during the storm. This accounts for the cold which almost left him speechless. The geese were so plentiful that he had no trouble in bagging the limit and the bird were now in cold storage.

SPRING LAKE DRIPPINGS

The teacher and pupils of the Spring Lake school gave a small program and basket social Saturday night. The baskets sold well, the net proceeds being $45.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hilliard.

Miss Hilda Chase visited on Friday with Miss Lucille Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schneider and daughter Pauline were visitors at the De Puy home Sunday.

National Weather Strip

The National weather strip may still be installed this year if orders are placed immediately. Mr. Collier, state agent, who left for Bend Saturday, left behind him Mr. J. W. Baker, who is placing the weather strip on several of the homes in the city. He will be glad to call and explain its many advantages to those who may be interested. It never wears out, will pay for itself in the fuel it saves and affords so much comfort by the shutting out of cold and dust that you would not give it up for ten times the cost. Orders left at The Herald office will be delivered to Mr. Baker. Ask those fortunate enough to have installed this weather strip what they think of it; then phone in your request for Mr. Baker to call.

AT THE LIBERTY THEATRE

George Walsh, the big, brawny athlete of the film, has added to his many successes in "The Dead Line," which plays tonight at the Liberty theatre.
Paul H. Sloane has written a corking drama telling the story of the real "power behind the throne" of illicit moonshine stills located in the mountains of Kentucky. It's the kind of story strong men like; it makes a big appeal to mothers, and the young folks are thrilled with the prowess displayed by the star. Director Dell Henderson has spared no pains in making this the best of the popular Walsh pictures.

"Up In Mary's Attic," the comedy de luxe feature, the attraction at the Liberty theatre tomorrow, is a thrilling and amusing story of high jinks in a girls' seminary with the melodramatic thrills brought out by Eva Novak, Harry Gribbon, a captivating baby, and a bevy of beauties.

OREGON BREVITIES

WILLOW SPRINGS, Nov. 30.—On Saturday night or Sunday some malicious person opened the petcock to the oil tank on the Felderhamer orchard and allowed 3,000 gallons of smudge oil to run out. There have been other cases of mischief and petty thievery in the neighborhood and ranchers are prepared to defend the property.

PORTLAND, Nov. 30.—Albert Magnuson was fined $200 and James Gustafson $50, after they had been convicted in the municipal court Friday on a charge of violating the prohibition law. Both men were arrested in a residence at the corner of Park and Oak streets by Sergeant Shad and Patrolman Fair, who found three pints of moonshine which Gustafson endeavored to pour into a sink when the police entered.

MEDFORD, Nov. 30.—The Medford football eleven buried the jinx, which has hung to the local high school for years on the Ashland gridiron Thanksgiving day, when they swamped the Red and White 22 to 0 in one of the best games ever witnessed by southern Oregon people.

PORTLAND, Nov. 30.—Albert Wing paid $41 in salaries for 18 special jurors because he changed his mind about having a jury trial. Wing was charged with driving a motor truck while intoxicated, and was given a 60-day jail sentence by Municipal Judge Rossman. After calling for a jury he decided not to use it, and pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge Stapleton. He was fined $50 and compelled to pay the costs.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 30.—Rev. Andrew Jackson Josslyn, one of the well-known pioneer ministers of Oregon, whose home is at Canby, Or., was seriously burned about the hands, arms and face on Thursday afternoon while he was attempting to clean a clock with kerosene. Rev. Mr. Josslyn was standing near the stove and the oil became ignited. The flames shot into his face, and in attempting to extinguish them his hands and arms were burned.

REDMOND, Nov. 30.—The factory building of the Redmond Juniper Manufacturing company is completed and the machinery is all in place, it is announced. Officers of the company wired for an expert to visit the plant and set the saws properly that the making of the juniper pencil slats may begin.

"for clean oil in a clean engine"
The motoring public has been quick to appreciate

OUR new Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service for motorists has won immediate approval. Many motorists have come to us for Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service since our first announcement last week.
It shows that motorists want to maintain their cars in perfect running condition, clean and well lubricated, and that they appreciate a service that does the work for them thoroughly and quickly for a nominal charge. It saves them the trouble, time and inconvenience of doing this necessary but dirty work themselves.
No automobile can operate at its best when lubricated with dirty oil, diluted with gasoline. Fresh oil added to the old dirty oil does not help much. The engine and crankcase should be flushed clean at frequent intervals—regularly. It is the only remedy.
The garages listed below are now equipped to do this work thoroughly and quickly for a nominal charge, and in the modern way—using Calol Flushing Oil, the correct cleaning agent—and refilling with Zerolene of the correct grade for your car.
This treatment given once to your engine will result in immediate better performance. Done regularly it will lengthen the life of your car.
TODAY! Bring in your car for Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service.

ARE YOU Concerned in Your Telephone Service

Telephone service is now universally recognized as a necessity in business and social life. In your own business every day a hundred details are disposed of by telephone which would require weeks of time and cost you many times over your present expense if they had to await the slow and antiquated methods of a few years ago. In your home the convenience and adaptability of telephone service make the day's duties easy, which, if the telephone were absent, would prove to be a slow and cumbersome task. In other words, the telephone is indispensable in your office and your home.

This being true, you are concerned in whether or not the Company which furnishes your service can continue and improve and extend that service. You are interested in whether or not money can be obtained to maintain and build up the system which is trying to keep pace with Oregon growth and progress.

Neither the telephone company nor any other public service company can go ahead if its revenues are not sufficient to maintain and operate its property and pay a fair earning on the money necessary to extend its business to meet the public demand.

You are interested—it is your service.
