Victory Scatters Woman's Party Workers

By GEORGE B. WATERS
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—It was argued in the last days of the hard suffrage campaign that legislatures ought to ratify in order to release the army of women striving for the vote for other lines of endeavor.

The organizers for the national woman's party, who were paid salaries, worked hard in order to work themselves out of jobs.

If a bunch of carpenters had been building a fence and saw no other jobs in sight, they might have spent two days on it when it could be done in one. But not these girls! In their lobbying before legislatures, and especially in Tennessee, for final victory, they forgot their salaries would stop when the vote was taken.

Weren't Idle Long
However, these brilliant young women weren't idle long. Not one of them needed to search the help-wanted columns for something to do. They were sought by employers—or husbands.

Betty Gram, Portland, Ore., who had dropped her musical education four years ago to answer the call of Alice Paul for suffrage pickets not afraid of prison, sailed a few weeks ago for Germany to complete her musical studies.

Doris Stevens, Omaha, who quit her musical studies to become a suffragist militant, has become an authoress and has already published her first book, "Jailed For Freedom."

Lucy Branham, beautiful society girl of Baltimore, left the stirring days of picketing and prison sentences and now teaches European history at Columbia university.

More Teachers
The suffrage victory added to the supply of teachers when Mary Dubrow, Passaic, N. J., took a job in an industrial normal school in her home town.

Hazel Hunkins, Billings, Mont., has sailed for England to make a study of the cooperative movement and will return with her information to be given to groups of farmers and workers.

Other girl workers in the suffragist movement, after they helped prove woman's place isn't in the home all the time, decided to prove woman's freedom to choose.

Iris Calderhead, Kansas City, for instance, married John Brisson Walker and with him edits a magazine; Clara Louise Rowe, Syracuse, N. Y., is now Mrs. Donald McFaw; Miss Rebecca Hourwich, New York city, is the wife of Ferdinand de Reyher, short story writer, and the mother of a small feminist daughter, Vivian Pierce has taken up philanthropic work.

Several of the organizers of the woman's party have remained with it to help with the organization of its national convention, Feb. 15. These are: Anita Pollitzer, Charleston, S. C.; Catherine Flanagan, Hartford, Conn.; Su White, Lebanon, Tenn.; and Elizabeth Kalb, Houston, Texas.

Mail Order House Average Profits of Twenty Millions

You may think $20,026,692 is a big amount, but that is exactly the average yearly profits of the Sears, Roebuck & Co. for the past four years.

Big as this seems it falls far short of what their profits for 1920 will be.

figuring on the basis of their net returns for the first six months of the year, which were $15,447,285.19.

And this is not all, for Sears Roebuck & Co. held sufficient undivided profits to warrant a stock dividend in July of this year amounting to 40 per cent of their common capital stock. This stock dividend issue totaled $30,000,000, raising the common capital stock issue from $75,000,000 to $105,000,000.

And these millions of profits are

CAT AND RAT "LIFE" TOO MUCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Olga Dunlop led a cat and rat life, so to speak, with William, her husband, she told the court here. Once he threw a live cat on her shoulders and it scratched her, she said. Another time he put a dead rat in her bed. It frightened her, she held. She divorced two husbands before William, for cruelty but she said Bill "did beat all." The judge wished her better luck next time and gave her a decree.

EMMETTSBURG, Ia., Dec. 1.—One of the largest collections of old and rare coins in the world is the property of Henry Miller, Emmetsburg farmer. QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked with the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular or passage or attended by, a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.
