First Woman Bailiff in Ohio

MRS. MINNIE WUEST
CINCINNATI, Nov. 30.—A woman bailiff! Court attaches were struck with consternation when Judge O'Connell named Mrs. Minnie Wuest, 1648 Dauner Ave., bailiff. She had never been in a court room before her appointment. County officials state that she is the first woman bailiff in Ohio. Her salary will be about $150 a month.

MADE JUST ONE MOVE TOO MANY

DENVER, Col., Dec. 1.—The last time Earl J. Dyer moved he moved himself out of matrimony. "He's made me move to 12 cities in 48 months," Mrs. Eva Dyer told the court here. "I never know where home will be next month." "Too many moves," commented the court and granted Mrs. Dyer's motion for divorce.

EVEN "NICK CARTER" HAS GONE SKYWARD

DES MOINES, Dec. 1.—"Nick Carter," detective stories have been supposed to be synonymous with "old stiff." But listen! Nick Carter stories used to sell for a dime, and now, according to Des Moines news dealers, the boys pay two-bits for them—and they buy as many of them as ever.

SWISS FORTRESS TO BE SANATORIUM

GENEVA, Switzerland, Dec. 1.—To prove its faith in the league of nations, Switzerland plans to dismantle its most powerful fortress St. Maurice, and convert it to a sanatorium for consumptive soldiers.

GRANT RADISHES

CANBY, Ore., Dec. 1.—Radishes, a single one of which is sufficient for a good sized family, are being grown here successfully for the first time by a Japanese gardener, who brought the idea from his own country. Some of the largest of these weigh five pounds and measure from 18 to 24 inches.
